Silent sentinals shout campaign message

Like silent sentinals guarding the American elective process, political signs stand erect on horizon beckoning support for their candidates. Polls will be open Tuesday, Nov. 8, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., offering electors an opportunity to mark their choice for U.S. president and a variety of state and county candidates. Local voters can confound the experts who predict a lighter than usual turnout by going to the polls en masse. ---Photo by John Doetsch.

Be happy, area's finances, now-future lookin' good!

by GLORIA DAVIS

With all the pros and cons floating around about Antioch's growth, the presidents of Antioch's two major banking institutions speak glowingly about the present and future financial conditions of the area.

Ted Axton, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, says he has indeed seen a lot of growth in both residential and commercial aspects since he came to Antioch five years ago.

"Right now we are seeing an increase in the volume of the purchases of new cars and a continuing strong local real estate market, both in the purchase and construction of new homes and the acquisition of homes all ready built," he said.

Randy Miles, president of the State Bank of Antioch said, "We've seen increased activity just in this last year in both consumer and commercial loans, in fact in all of our services."

"There is a lot of money in the area being invested with money market, and certificates of deposit (CDs) being the most popular," said Miles.

Both men said that the amount of money in checking and savings accounts had not necessarily increased per account, Axton is looking forward to the primary commercial and business growth spreading northward on the I-94 artery and working its way west to the Antioch area in the not too distant future.

Miles said that one of the best proofs of how the area is growing can be seen in the new business the State Bank's new Lindenhurst Facility has done since its opening in January, listing 1,200 new accounts and $3.5 million dollars in additional business.

Axton nixes talk that Antioch is just an area for upper middle class families by saying, "We often help families with a combined income of less than $50,000 buy a home here. Antioch prices in all areas are certainly not restrictive."

'Footlights' to glow

St. Peter's Church, Antioch, is preparing for its seventh annual fundraiser "Footlights '88". This year's performance dates are Nov. 4, 5, 11 and 12.

Among the 10 rooms packed with entertainment will be special guest appearance by Magic 104 Radio's own broadcaster, Ron Britain. Britain will appear in "Tropical Rock" on Saturday, Nov. 5 from 8 to 10 p.m. "King-B" as he is often called, can be heard weekdays playing solid gold hits and entertaining his listeners with challenging trivia, lots of laughs and magic memories from his famous "Subterranean Circus".

Also appearing in "Tropical Rock" will be long time favorite "Grease". This year "Grease" will perform a hot selection of 50 and 60's tunes to dance to. The band "Smile" will also join the "Tropical Rock" troupe to fill the evening with continuous dancing tunes.

"The Homestead" will be serving up a hearty selection of tasty home cooking. Featured dishes are "Back Home Blue Ribbon Chicken", "Dad's Catch of the Day" and "Spaghetti Western, Featuring Clint's Meatballs". Entertaining in "The Homestead" will be Jack Boarini and Florence Babusek, to mention a few, singing a selection of tunes for dining pleasure.

Tickets for "Footlights" are now available at a $2 savings. Tickets for Friday night's performance are $5 and Saturday night performances are $7. Admission prices will be $2 higher if purchased at the door.

Tickets can be purchased at St. Peter Rectory and School, Realty World-Tiffany and all Antioch Financial Institutions.

Sontag to speak on special ed

Dr. Ed Sontag, assistant superintendent of special education, Illinois State Board of Education, will be the guest speaker on Oct. 31, at the Gurnee Holiday Inn. The dinner meeting, scheduled for 6 p.m., is jointly sponsored by the Lake County Council for Exceptional Children, the Lake County Assn. for Citizens with Learning Disabilities and the Special Education Parents Advisory Council.

Speaking on "The Future of Special Education in Illinois," Sontag brings a perspective of a former special education teacher, local district administrator and director of the federal education office. This topic also reflects the current reorganization plan as well as the recently formulated priorities and goals for the Illinois State Dept. of Specialized Educational Services.

Those interested in attending or seeking more information should contact Robert E. Abbott at (312)360-5434.

CLC to host Transfer Day

The College of Lake County (CLC) will host Transfer Day from 9:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 2 for all students considering or planning to transfer to a four-year college or institution.

Representatives from 35 area colleges will be available to provide information to students in the Orange Court at CLC's main campus in Grayslake.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information call the Counseling Center at (312)223-7200.

Host families sought

Host families are being sought for high school students from Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Holland, Belgium, Austria, Switzerland, West Germany, Spain, France, Italy, Ecuador, Australia and Japan for the school year 1989-90 in a program sponsored by the American Intercultural Student Exchange (AISE).

The students, age 15 through 17, will arrive in the United States in late August, 1989, attend a local high school, and return to their home countries in early July, 1990. Students are fluent in English, have been screened by their local school representatives in their home country, and have spending money and medical insurance.

For further information, call 1-800-SIBLING, toll-free.

Former Olympic president dies

Philip O. Krumm, former U.S. Olympic Committee president, died Oct. 23. A memorial service was held for Mr. Krumm in the U.S. Olympic complex's Olympic House in Colorado Springs.

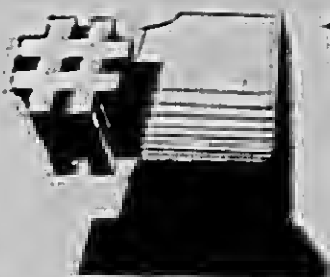

Krumm was president of the committee from 1973-1977 and his office was based in the State Bank of Antioch.

He is credited with two major accomplishments as president of the committee. He took training facilities for Olympic contenders out of the cities and placed them at Colorado Springs, and he also worked out a plan and a liaison system so that athletic organizations would stop arguing over athletes.

Krumm competed as a speedskater as well as serving as an official and executive of the association.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy; two sons, Kent and Steven; one daughter, Phyllis; and four grandchildren.

Hess expects high voter turnout on election day

by MIKE PRAMSHAFER

High voter turnout is expected for the Nov. 8 election and the Democrats are hoping to make a better showing than in past years.

Lake County Clerk Linda Hess said absentee voting is up this year, with approximately 1,100 Lake County residents already filing absentee compared to 1,200 in 1984. "We haven't surpassed 1984 yet, but we still have a couple of weeks to go. If things continue the way they have been, the number of absentee voters will definitely rise," she said.

Hess added that voter turnout is expected to be between 75-80 percent. It was 77 percent in 1984.

With the presidential race between Democrat Michael Dukakis and Republican George Bush expected to be close on the county level, many observers feel the remaining races will be tighter than usual, as well. "The top of the ticket does make a difference on the other races. I don't know who's going to win, but many feel Dukakis will make a better showing than previous Democratic presidential candidates have during the past eight years. This, in turn, will affect the other races as well," Hess explained.

The five races for Lake County offices should be interesting to watch because the Republican incumbents might be hard pressed to gain reelection.

Incumbents Sally Deadrick Coffelt, Barbara Richardson, Frank J. Nustra, Clinton Grinnell and Fred Foreman all are taking their respective races very seriously.

Coffelt, elected to office in 1980, is being challenged by Julia E. Edwards of Round Lake Heights, who is taking her first crack at a county-elected position. She currently is a trustee on the Round Lake Heights Village Board.

Richardson, a resident of Grayslake, was appointed to the coroner's position after the late Mickey Babcox was elected sheriff in 1982. This is Richardson's first shot at reelection. She is expecting a tough challenge from Robert Lee Baker of Libertyville.

Nustra has been in the Recorder of Deeds office since 1960. His opponent, Jack H. Piller of Highland Park, also is making his first run at a county-elected office. Nustra, a resident of Highwood, seems to have a tight grip on this office and it will take a serious run from Baker to unseat the incumbent.

For sheriff, candidates John Hoff (Waukegan) and Clinton Grinnell (Libertyville) are running for the unexpired two-year term after the death of Babcox earlier this year. Grinnell, chief deputy under the late sheriff, was appointed interim sheriff until the Nov. 8 election. The sheriff's office will be up for election again in 1990.

Another tight race is expected for the office of state's attorney. Gurnee resident Fred Foreman has held the office since 1980. His opponent, Robert Long of Antioch, is running a smooth campaign and many feel will fare better than expected.

There also are 12 spots open on the Lake County Board and voters will have to decide who fills those seats Nov. 8. There are two seats open in each of the six districts.

In Dist. 1, incumbents Donald Strenger of Lake Forest and Deloris Axelrod of Highland Park, both Republicans, will have their hands full trying to hold off Highland Park resident Millicent Berliant. The Democratic candidate is a former board member and feels good about her chances for a strong comeback.

In Dist. 2, the Democrats are expected to keep their two seats. Audrey Nixon of North Chicago is the only incumbent, but it is anticipated that Debra Halas of Waukegan will be able to win the other

Ask 7-1/2-cent hike for Winchester home

When voters go to the polls in the Tuesday, Nov. 8, election, they will find several tax referendums on the ballot. In addition to local propositions, there is one to increase the education and building tax rates for the College of Lake County to 20 cents and 10 cents, respectively.

Another will ask voters to increase the tax to support Winchester House in Libertyville from 2-1/2 cents per $100 of assessed valuation to 10 cents.

Once referred to as the "poor farm," Winchester House is a county-operated skilled care nursing home with 350 residents. Upwards of 80 percent are public-aid recipients.

State aid underwrites $43 per day of the cost for those at Winchester House. But due to salaries and other costs, the actual cost ranges from $68 to $73 per day per individual. Townships with residents at Winchester House pay 75 percent of the difference and the county pays the remaining 25 percent, which this year is estimated to be $4.92 per day. The rate changes annually, depending upon costs.

Due to the rising salaries to keep the staff at Winchester House competitive in the health care industry plus the growing cost of health care, a deficit of $795,805 is projected by the end of this year. Last year's shortfall was more than $200,000. Cost cutting is not considered a viable solution because salaries account for 80 percent of the home's budget, said Administrator Robert Roiland.

Although the Nov. 8 ballot asks voters to approve a levy increase of 10 cents, only a portion will be levied each year, said Avon Twp. Sup. Norman Geary, a member of the Building and Health Comm.

that oversees operations at Winchester House. If approved, the county would like to levy 4-1/2 cents of the requested 7-1/2-cents increase next year. This will produce an estimated $2,545,429, which is next year's projected deficit. Geary said the deficit is projected to grow to $9 million by the year 2002 when the full tax rate will be levied.

"Such deficits will grow each year unless a tax increase is approved," Geary said of the first tax hike for Winchester House since 1982.

The tax increase will help provide financial stability for Winchester House to the year 2003 and beyond, supporters say. A committee has been formed to encourage approval of the tax increase.

If part of the rate is levied next year, the owner of a $120,000 home will pay an additional $8 per year or total of $18 for Winchester House operations.

Idea behind the referendum is to remove the Winchester House tax burden from townships and make it countywide. Each township is assigned a number of beds at Winchester House based on its population. As an example, Geary said Avon Twp. which has 6.8 percent of the population, is allowed 23 beds. But it has 31 residents at the home because other townships do not assign patients there. Benton Twp. is allowed 11 beds, but only has five patients; Antioch is allowed 12, but has only 10; Warren is permitted 18, but uses only 15 beds utilized; Lake Villa is allowed 13 and uses that number; Fremont and Grant townships are assigned 10 beds and use all of them; and Waukegan is allowed 61, but only utilizes 53.

Antioch Plaza's new look

ACHS big on science, math pupils

by GLORIA DAVIS

With the media giving big publicity to "a nation-wide" drop in educational achievement, especially in the science and electronic fields compared to other countries, Antioch High School has a refreshing bit of news.

"More students are taking extra academic classes now and we are especially short of space for math and science classes," says Supt. Gary Allen.

With school board approval, a Waukegan architectural firm has been commissioned to do $900 study of possible classroom expansion on the present school site. If expansion and remodeling is proceeded with, another study on how to handle the expansion, costing the area of $18,000, will have to be done.

"We have room in the old part of the school because of a drop in attendance of vocational classes, but these rooms will not lend themselves to the classes that need the room," said Allen.

Allen added that the increasing growth of the area gives expectations of an enrollment of a possible 2,000 students in the next 10 years, an increase of 300 students over the present enrollment.

Allen added that the school had solved its parking problems by giving out 156 campus parking stickers to seniors. All other students who drive to school have to park off campus.

Dist. 34 averages high, pupil costs under state

by GLORIA DAVIS

Grade School Dist. Supt. Don Skidmore, in going over the school year report card, told the board of education that the district averages in student achievement and attendance are higher than the state averages.

The report card also shows that the district's cost per pupil, $2,961, is much lower than the state average cost per student of $4,008; lower than same and similar size districts by several hundred dollars.

The board also agreed to allow the Viking Junior Football program to install lights on one of the district's baseball diamonds to be used for football practice, based on certain conditions.

The classroom activities for the district's new at-risk pre-school program began last week, headed by Mrs. Janet Behling, assisted by W. C. Petty Principal Paul Hain.

Funding for the class, which actually deals with parents becoming more effective with their children, comes from one of five at risk pre-school grants received by the district.

Additional supplies and equipment are being purchased and a room to house three and four year olds has been readied at Petty.

Along The Way With Annie Mae

by ANNIE MAE

Remember me folks, old Annie Mae, columnist for the Antioch News for more years than I care to count?

I've been gone for awhile, mainly because my arthritis made it difficult to type on my trusty old Remington.

But now our erstwhile publisher Bill Schroeder has given me a new Apple computer to use and I hardly have to touch the keys.

I thought I'd never learn to use the new fangled little box, but as soon as I stopped fighting it, it came real easy!

And best of all, as usual, old Annie Mae is keeping right up with the electronic age!

Wasn't homecoming week at Antioch High School a lot of fun! Loved the Mr. Antioch contest! That cute Jason Belluci in a woman's bathingsuit was a riot and those California Raisins were great! Now I understand all the to-do about the Sugar Shack. Great fun girls, about time!

And who was that on the Indian pony dragging a headless Patriot during the game?

Was in the State Bank of Antioch to cash my Social Security check last week, bumped into Randy Miles and stopped for a chat. Seems he and his lovely wife Jane will be singing those romantic duets again at St. Peters "Footlights."

Anyone who says that all banking is impersonal big business nowadays hasn't visited our Antioch banks to stop and talk with Randy or see Ted Axton running around trying to get a cup of coffee.

Proof of how smart our "sassy" village clerk, Marilyn Stierbenz is can be found in the fact that she headed for sunny California as soon as Jack Frost attacked.

Getting in to see Supt. Gary Allen at ACHS can be interesting. Ask the receptionist if Allen can see you. She phones Allen's secretary who is at the desk directly across the way to ask if Allen is in. All the while Allen can be seen peering from the glass window that fronts his office.

This all happened during one of those busy times when silly things take place. Everyone had a good laugh over it.

Plan face-lift, growth for Antioch Plaza mall

Antioch Plaza Shopping Center on Orchard St. in downtown Antioch is scheduled for extensive remodeling and future expansion, according to an announcement by the owners, L&M Partners, a firm headed by Lowell Stahl and Mike Cherwenka.

The renovation and expansion will be completed in three phases. Phase I, which is now underway and scheduled for completion in the fall of 1988, consists of a new front for the 13 retail stores, with a mansard roof, new gutters and new lighting in all the public areas.

"The original center was started 20 years ago and built in three phases," said Stahl. "As additions were made, they were different elevations. The new front for the center will bring it together as a single architectural unit."

Phase II of the remodeling, which will take place after January, 1989, will include extensive improvement of the parking area.

Phase III, which will be started in the summer of 1989, will include the possible construction of new retail space in the center. Antioch Plaza now covers 84,500 square feet.

The center is now occupied by a Piggly Wiggly Market, Sears, Globe Department Store, Little Caesar's Pizza, a laundromat, a beauty parlor, the Carousel, a sandwich shop and an auto repair facility.

Although the center is located in Antioch, research indicates it is not only serving Antioch residents but customers from a 12-mile radius. One out of every four cars in the center's parking lot is from Wisconsin.

According to Ted Axton, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, which is located adjacent to Antioch Plaza, 12 percent of the bank's customers are from Wisconsin.

Homecoming parade best

The day was sunny, bright and crisp, the kind that makes one's feet cold, as the tradition continued. It was ACHS Homecoming Weekend, 1988, and the parade enjoyed by hundreds of spectators was among the best ever seen in Antioch.

party for Dr. W.C. Petty, which will be held from 1 to 3 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 6, at the United Methodist Church of Antioch. The family requests no gifts; your presence will be a gift to Dr. Petty.

Notes & News

The marching bands were great crowd-pleasers, with students from Antioch High School, Emmons, W.C. Petty and Antioch Upper Grade Schools participating.

There was tremendous creativity shown by the ACHS students as each float that passed by seemed to get better and better—from a motorized athletic shoe to giant California raisins to a lotto game winner.

The senior class took first place honors with their version of "The American Dream, the Winning Number", and with their a-tad-unusual mode of transportation.

Not too many parades can boast about an Army armored personnel carrier, complete with camouflage and half-track. This class of 1989 also won the "Spirit Week" competition for the fourth consecutive year. Way to go, kids—Yeah!!

Congratulations to the 1988 Homecoming King and Queen—Brad Nauman and Kelly Maple. Brad also was named Mr. ACHS at the annual male beauty contest.

Also seen riding in the parade were members of the classes of 1958 and 1968. The Class of 1968 held their 20th reunion with a weekend of activities concurrent with homecoming.

They celebrated with a get-together at Furlan's Dugout, Trevor, Wisc., a tailgate party and hayride in the parade, and a dinner-dance at the Illinois State Beach Lodge.

Over 70 classmates, not including their guests, attended the dinner. Classmate Terry Zebrowski came the farthest, from West Palm Beach, Fla. Highlights of the evening were a "stroll" and hoola-hoop contest. Heard tell the party was so great that it lasted until 1 a.m., an hour later than planned.

Planners for the event were Cheryl Crews Cunningham, Cindy Cross Gennrich, Carol Stilianoff Furlan, Sharon O'Neil Kusek, Mike Mazer, and Joel Strahan.

The only results to mar the homecoming weekend were the football score (Antioch 12, Stevenson, 21) and the painted "S" that appeared mysteriously on the ACHS playing field.

Another celebration that Antioch folks should know about and won't want to miss is the 90th birthday presence to hear their special Nov. 1 speaker, Rose Price, a Messianic Jewish survivor of the Nazi death camps. Come hear her testimony of tragedy and triumph. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. at the State Bank of Antioch Community Room, 440 Lake St. Door fee is $1.50.

In other local news, the Antioch Food Pantry reports it received 45 cases of food donated by the Lake County Boy Scouts' county-wide food drive. It came right in handy, too—the food pantry reports demand for their services is running higher than usual for this time of year. Thanks, Boy Scouts, for a good deed well done!

The PADS emergency shelter program held at the United Methodist Church of Antioch on Sunday evenings from October to April is in need of more volunteers to man the different time shifts, and it also requests food to be served to those needy persons (casseroles, salads and desserts), plus food for the cold breakfast served clients early Monday mornings. Please call the church office at (312)395-1259 for more information.

The Antioch Vikings Football program will conclude its 1988 season with a Featherweight All-Star game at 10 a.m. on Sunday, Oct. 30, on the ACHS big playing field. It will be the Sea-Bears (Seahawks and Bears) versus the Reagles (Raiders and Eagles).

At halftime during the All-Star game the Viking cheerleading organization will hold a Cheerleading Competition, 1988, between the Featherweight squads and the color guard. Each team will perform an original hello cheer and a set routine.

Scoring will be based on performance, appearance, spirit and creativity, with one superior, one excellent, and three good awards being presented.

Special judges for the event will be: Miss Antioch, 1988, Stephanie Vogt; Little Miss Antioch, 1988, Amber Dusak; Krystal Gust, captain, ACHS football cheerleaders, varsity; and Kellie Lellish, ACHS varsity cheerleader.

QUALITY, VALUE & SERVICE

Antioch's offense comes alive, but they lose 21-14

Antioch's offense arrived for one of the first times this season, but this was not quite enough, as the Sequoits lost momentum in the fourth quarter and lost their homecoming game 21-14 to Stevenson last Friday.

"The score was close, but they kind of dominated in the fourth quarter and had the momentum," said Antioch Coach Dell Pechauer, whose team is now 3-5.

Antioch will try to go out on a winning note, and raise their record to just under .500 with a victory over the Fenton Bisons. The away game is Friday, Oct. 28 at 8 p.m.

Antioch likes to establish an effective running game, then go to a strong passing attack, Pechauer said. They ran well early, then tried to open up their offense a bit, Pechauer said, adding he was surprised that his team was able to move the ball on the ground well against the Patriots, who have a number of big linebackers.

Antioch scored two touchdowns to lead for most of the first half. These came on a 28-yard, first-quarter run by Glenn Graham, and a 10-yard pass from Rick Beatie to wide receiver Scott Gooch. Stevenson gained its only score of the half, and a two-point conversion, in the first quarter. They added thirteen points in the fourth quarter.

Pechauer said his squad made small mistakes in the fourth quarter, and simply fell apart for a while.

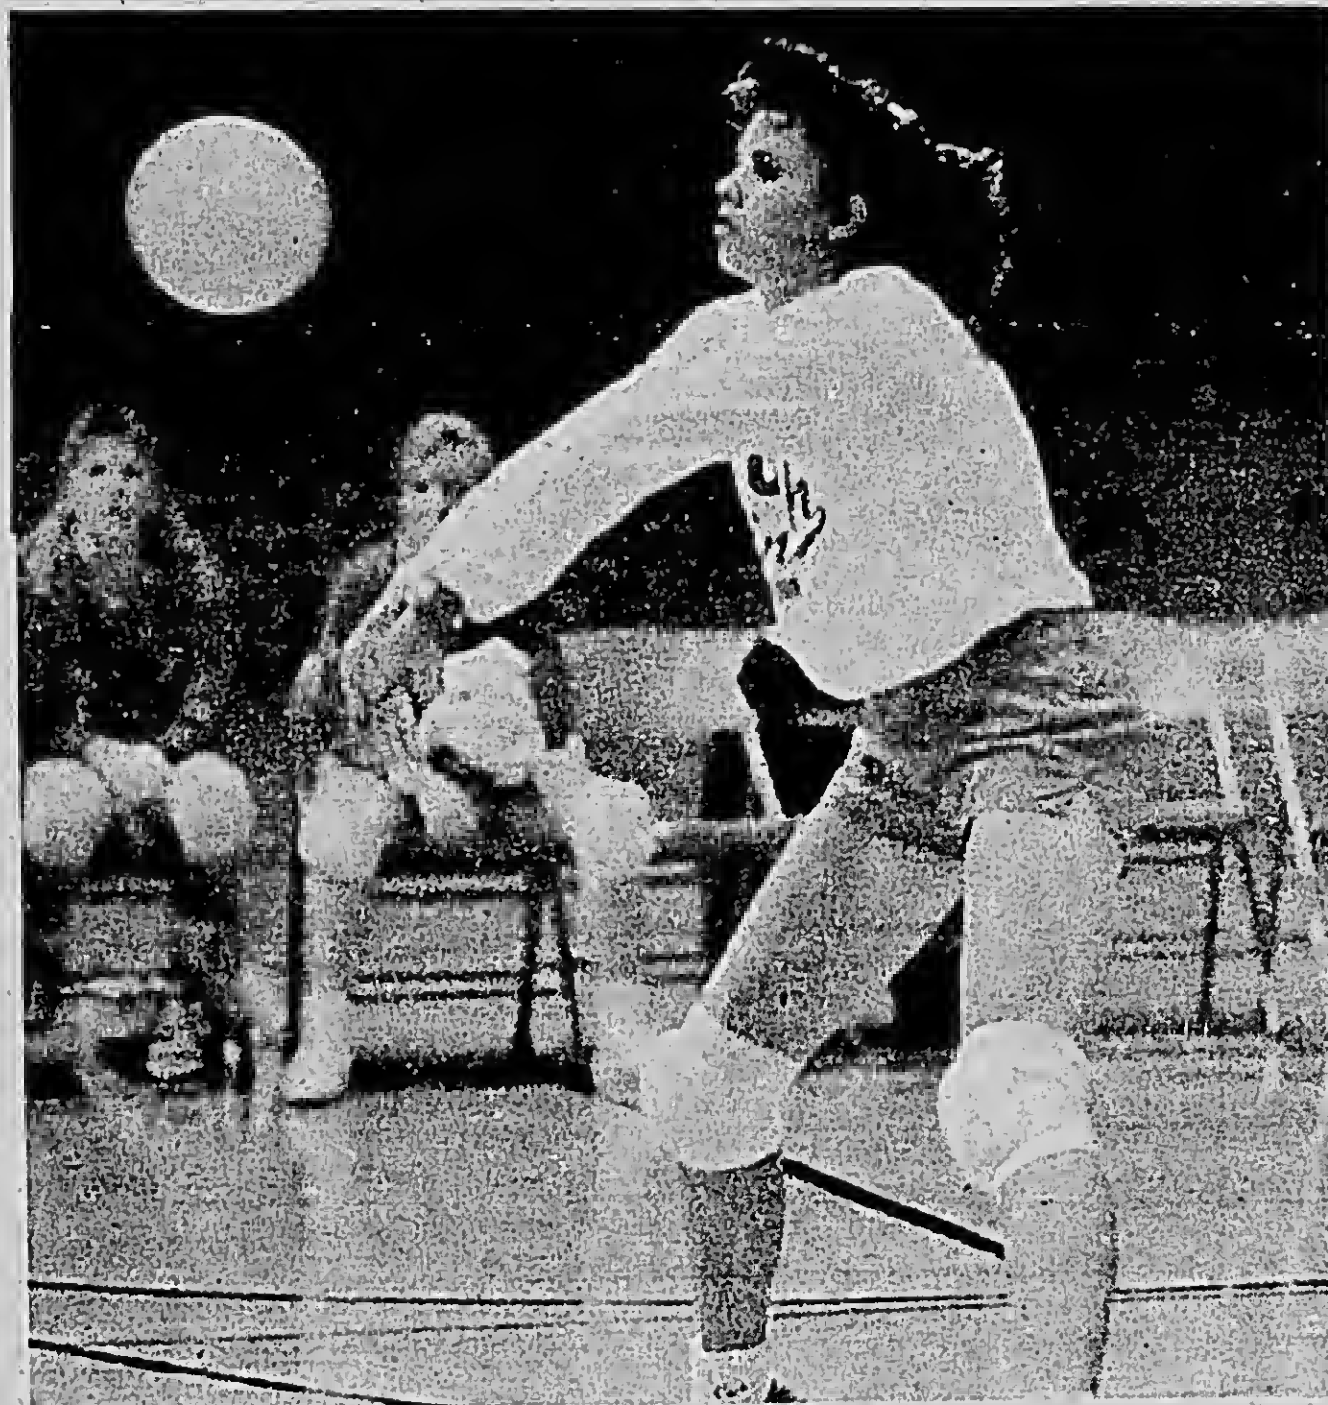

It's hard for his team, or any team for that matter, to convert on second and 25, or third and 15, Pechauer noted.

Antioch turned the ball over to Stevenson inside their own 15 on three occasions during the game. Twice they stopped the Patriots, and once, in the fourth quarter, they did not.

Nov. 1 night for college interviews

Antioch Community High School will sponsor its annual College Night on Tuesday, Nov. 1. The evening will begin with an introductory program for parents and students at 7 p.m. in the auditorium.

This program, which will be conducted by members of the guidance staff, will focus on the college selection process in general.

Representatives from over 70 colleges and universities will be available in the student commons area and gym foyer beginning at 7:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. Most of the state universities in Illinois will have staff in attendance, except for the Univ. of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Richmond plans walk

Anyone searching for that unique gift or "perfect" stocking stuffer, can visit the shops of north Richmond, which is hosting a country Christmas open house from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Nov. 11, 12, and 13.

The four shops, A Day in the Country, Fox Hunt Shoppe, and Village Doll Shop on Kenosha St./Rte. 173 and Bob's Bargain Mart on Main St./Rte. 12, offer a large selection of crafts, antiques, and gift items.

Shoppers may also participate in the open house walk of these four shops and be eligible to win one of several free prizes, including $25 gift certificates and store donated merchandise.

Stop at any of the four sponsoring shops to pick up an open house walk card.

Scouting Report

BY STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

St. Patrick at Carmel

Date: Oct. 28

Location: McCullough Stadium,
Carmel High School.

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Carmel can control its own destiny with a home win in the season finale. Both teams come into the game at 4-2 in the East Suburban Catholic Conference, 6-2 overall. Both have playoff hopes riding in this one as six wins gives the two teams a shot at the playoffs but nothing is guaranteed with the IHSA tiebreak - something both wish to avoid. Carmel features star running back Matt Simmons, who returned to top form in last week's 35-21 win over Notre Dame. St. Patrick is coming off a 14-7 loss to St. Viator and Brian Dunlavy, the northwest suburb's best runner this year.

Grant at Grayslake

Date: Oct. 28

Location: Grayslake High School

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Both teams come into the contest at 2-6, so this one will be for pride. As Coach Harold Jahnke said, there is not much more coaches can say after eight frustrating weeks. Grant has been improving on defense but its offense has been a problem all year. The Bulldogs have not scored two touchdowns since the season opener. Grayslake has had an up and down year. Quarterback Timm West can be effective if given the time to throw. Mike Duchane and John Bouma lead the running attack.

Lake Zurich at Wauconda

Date: Oct. 29

Location: Wauconda High School

Game time: 1 p.m.

Keys to game: Lake Zurich is wishing it could start the season over as the Bears went 0-for September. Now they have won three and are shooting for a 4-3 NWSC finish. The host Bulldogs are trying to still seek a playoff berth at 6-3 as they regained form to crush Johnsburg 28-7. Lake Zurich is led by quarterback Scott Krezeminski and running backs Mike Kloss and Joe Leineberg. Wauconda has been led by quarterback Dion Niemo. Running back Shawn Nohava scored two touchdowns last week.

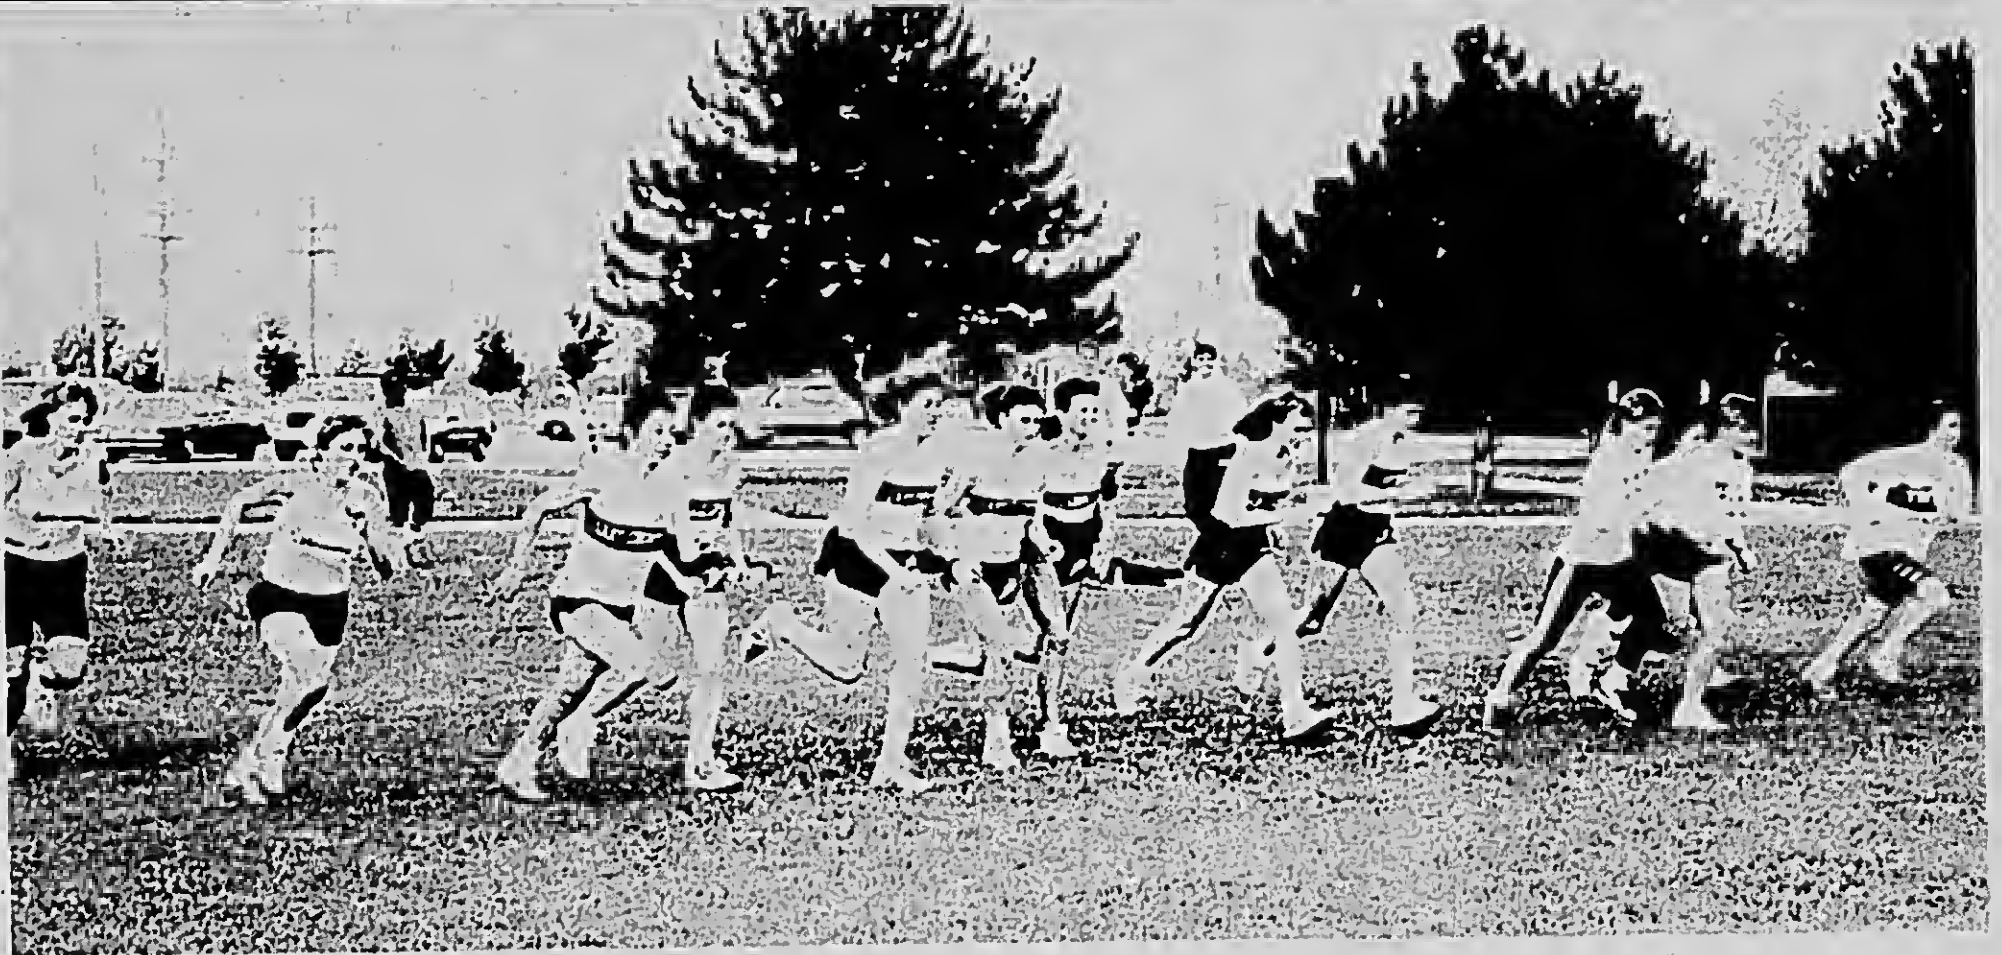

Warren at Stevenson

Date: Oct. 28

Location: Stevenson High School,
Prairie View

Game time: 7:30 p.m.

Keys to game: Warren's offense had had problems all year taking advantage of chances but it came to life just at the right time last week. Trailing early, the Blue Devils rallied for 28-14 win over Mundelein. The Pats also are coming off a win, spoiling Antioch's Homecoming 21-14. Although both teams have been out of the running for some time, finishing 4-5 or 3-6 would give the winner a positive feeling about '88. Warren's strength all year has been defense and it showed last week when Don Bendry intercepted a pass and ran it in for a 17-yard score. Also, Keith Freidman broke up a pass in the end zone. Stevenson also had a key defensive play as Mike Lettice picked off a Rick Beattie pass, leading to the winning score by Mark Robich.

Seeking strong start

College of Lake County's women's cross country team members have enjoyed many successes so far this season. The Lancers of cross country coordinator Jim Felly have been ranked 12th nationally by the NJCAA. Both men's and women's cross country teams will be seeking berths in the national meet in Twin Falls, Idaho when they compete in regional competition. Lance women will be trying to get off to good start as they do in CLC's invitational.

Carmel comes from behind yet again to secure playoff berth

Carmel's football team fell behind early against Notre Dame, as they had on a few other occasions during the year, but they retained their composure and came back to beat the Dons 35-21.

Carmel has secured the school's first-ever spot in the Illinois High School Assn. playoffs, which will begin on Wednesday, Nov. 2.

"This is a group of kids that doesn't panic," said Coach Mike Fitzgibbons. He cited experience gained during the year when his team has had to come from behind to win. The Cosairs overcame a 15-0 deficit against Notre Dame, built up by a fumbled kickoff and a long pass play on which the Dons scored.

When playing St. Patrick's this weekend, Carmel will face a team that also can rack up points. They have fine players throughout the backfield, a returning all-conference wide receiver, and a capable offensive line, Fitzgibbons said.

"They've sputtered in the last few weeks, but they won't do that again," Fitzgibbons said of St. Patrick's. "They'll come in ready for us." Gametime is 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 28, at the Cosairs' home field.

Carmel is one of five teams in the East Suburban Catholic Conference at 4-2, Fitzgibbons noted, and only a single week remains in the regular season.

A strong effort by both the offense and defense helped Carmel to get to 4-2. Notre Dame had no first downs after the beginning of the third quarter, and four of their six sacks came in the second half. Also, the Cosairs stopped the Dons on fourth and four at the ten-yard-line early in the second half.

Fitzgibbons could cite only three mistakes his defense made -- they had the Notre Dame quarterback cornered in the backfield on a fourth-and-four play, but he got away for a 12-yard gain, and a pair of miscues on coverage of long passes which allowed the Dons two touchdowns.

Fitzgibbons said he sensed victory in the third quarter when his team drove 90 yards for a touchdown, the defense "stuffed" the Dons on the following possession, and the offense then scored another touchdown on a 55-yard march. At this point the game's momentum found a home with the Cosairs, Fitzgibbons indicated.

Matt Simmons gained 199 yards on 20 carries to go over 1,000 yards for the season, and Steven Brock 78 yards on 16 carries. The passing game was geared up, as well, as the Cosairs' Thad Sutter threw touchdown passes of 23, 34 and 25 yards to Donny Anderson. Their other scores came on runs of one yard by Brock, the Cosairs' first touchdown, and eight yards by Simmons, to close out the scoring.

Carmel gained 468 total yards, 310 of them coming on the ground. Sutter was 6 of 8 in picking up 158 yards through the air.

CLC runners strive for NJCAA meet

Idaho in November is not usually considered an ideal place to be.

Not unless you are a member of the College of Lake County mens or women's cross country teams. For it will be a ticket to the national NJCAA meet in November that will be the prize the Lancers will shoot for at the regional meet at Niles Oct. 29.

Both Lancer contingents are coming off Skyway Conference championships earned last week at the same course as regionals.

"The women's title is practically a given. We hope all seven runners will finish in the top 10," CLC cross country coordinator Jim Felly said.

The women's team, ranked 12th in the NJCAA earlier this fall, handily beat Waubonsee for the Skyway Conference title last week.

Shelley Hazel of Wildwood won the individual honors with a 20:18 in the three-mile course. Dee Dee Roche of Mundelein was second at 20:34. Kathleen Whalen and sister Karen Whalen of Libertyville were third and fourth at 20:38 and 20:48, respectively. Michelle Smith of Round Lake was fifth at 22:02. Cheryl Geary was sixth at Marcy Field of Wadsworth was seventh at 22:49.

Foley finishes in fourth

College of Lake County's women's tennis team capped off a successful season by finishing eighth at the Region IV tournament.

A fourth-place finish by singles player Teresa Foley was the highlight for the Lancers, who garnered three points at the meet.

Foley was defeated by Harper College's Cheryl Piszeyck in the semifinals. Foley, of Round Lake, defeated Sheryl Campos 6-2, 6-4 in the first round and Donna Colona of Joliet in the second round. After winning the first set 7-6 on a 6-2 tiebreak, Foley won the second set 6-0.

Rence Schubert fell to Lisa Bozzetti of Thornton 6-0, 6-1 while Rence Roth of CLC lost to Lydia Leona of Oakton in a three-set battle. Thornton's Mary Rentz eliminated Tina McBride 6-1, 6-0.

In doubles, both CLC teams lost in the first round.

Rams, Panthers keep regional final in NWSC

"Offense has been our problem all season long," Grant Coach Sue Richardson, whose team ended at 6-17, said.

Round Lake's top hitter, Cyndie Donner, was suffering from a back injury before the match and that limited her flexibility.

Round Lake converted a strong 47 of 51 service tries.

The second match of the night proved to be more exciting for fans.

Grayslake was pointing to the third match against the Panthers and coming off a Harvard tournament title.

The initial stages of the first game set the tone as Grayslake's Nancy Brenner and Antioch's Teri Farnsworth battled at the net.

Strong serving, including aces by Wendy Webb and Robin Samuelson paced the Rams to an 10-2 lead.

Antioch rallied to 11-8, but the Rams finished out the game on a Brenner kill and service points from Brenner and Samuelson.

Grayslake, like Round Lake had earlier, took an early lead in the second game at 10-7. But the Rams suddenly stopped and Antioch scored eight straight points to secure the game.

Denna Hallwas served the final five points of the game.

"We have a tendency to get satisfied and stop talking," McNamara said of the second game letdown.

Neither team could gain the upper hand in the third and deciding game. The Sequoias led as late as 13-12 on a Janelle Maki service point.

But then came Sandy Padjen.

They may be bitter archrivals.

Yet, as far as Round Lake and Grayslake's volleyball teams are concerned, they would like nothing better than to have an all-Northwest Suburban Conference regional final.

And that's just what both teams achieved Tuesday as they advanced to the regional final. Round Lake had the easier time of it, downing Grant in two games, 15-6, 15-13. The Rams and North Suburban Conference's Antioch battled hard in a three-game match before Grayslake prevailed 15-8, 10-15 and 15-13.

"We wanted an all-NWSC final," Grayslake Coach Tom McNamara said.

Thursday's regional final between the Rams and Panthers was the third meeting of the year for the clubs. "It's tough to beat a team three times in a season," Round Lake Coach Brian Brown said.

The Panthers, 24-2-1 after their regional win, were heavy favorites against the Bulldogs. And in game one, the Panthers won in impressive fashion.

After the Bulldogs tied the first game at 6-6, the Panthers outscored Grant 9-0 to win the game.

It looked like the second game would handily go in Round Lake's favor as the home team burst to a 6-1 lead. But Grant, fought back, and trailed just 14-13. Jean Kaczmarzyn then served for the final point of the match.

"Jean will be a key as to how far we go," Brown said of the junior.

Kerry Seharfenorth had 11 service points and Evelyn Van Meter had six in the win over the Bulldogs.

Padjen, a senior, then rose to the occasion. The all-NWSC player served the final two points as Grayslake pulled out a 15-13 win.

C.O.D. Committee names endorsements

The nonpartisan Curb Over-Development (C.O.D.) political action committee has made its endorsements for Lake County Board, State Senate and Legislative seats. Nine hours of interviews were given to those candidates who appeared.

"The scope of our endorsements is clearly spelled out in our bylaws. Our goal is to safeguard the environment, curb over-development, protect our quality of life, promote open space, reduce further traffic congestion, and to fund and work for those candidates who share our concerns," said COD Chairman F. T. "Mike" Graham.

COD endorses and urges a bullet vote in County Board Dist. 1, for Millicent Beriant, who strongly supports preserving the fast dwindling open space and all efforts to reduce further traffic congestion in her over-developed county board district.

COD vigorously supports Audry Nixon and Debra Halas in Dist. 2. Both have a unique understanding of the connection between over-development in western Lake County and the need to recycle North Chicago and Waukegan to their former greatness.

COD endorses Bertha Ogrin, Matt Balen and Eleanor Rostron in County Board Dist. 3. All three are extremely knowledgeable about the need for solid planning and open space conservation in their diverse district, where half is highly developed and half is rural.

COD gives enthusiastic support to Suzi Schmidt in County Board Dist. 4, who is light years ahead of all her opponents in the area of curbing over-development and preserving open space. No interviews were held for County Board Dists. 5 and 6.

COD supports State Reps. Grace Mary Stern, Dist. 58, and John Matijevich, Dist. 61, because of their continued strong efforts on behalf of the open space legislation in Springfield.

COD endorsed Bill Peterson for the State House of Representatives from Dist. 60 with one reservation. COD does not share Peterson's support of extending Rte. 53 through the heart of some of Lake County's most fertile farmland, because of all the spinoff destruction and congestion that the road will generate if built. However, in 1985, Peterson cast a life saving vote for the Twp. Open Space Act in his counties and township committee.

COD endorses Grant Farrell for Legislative Dist. 62.

Crime Stoppers and the Antioch Police Dept. are seeking information on a personal injury hit and run accident occurring on Thursday, Oct. 6 at approximately 7:55 p.m.

The incident occurred on Rte. 83, North of Rte. 173, when the offending vehicle exited the Hardce's Restaurant parking lot, south bound at a high rate of speed, causing the vehicle to veer into the north bound lane and collide with a second car.

After the collision, the offending vehicle continued traveling south bound on Rte. 83.

The only description given by witnesses of the offending vehicle was possibly a newer model full size Mercury Cougar or Lincoln, red or maroon in color with extensive front end damage.

No driver or license plate information was available. Anyone having any information about this crime or any other felony crime fugitive can contact Crime Stoppers at (312)662-2222. Remember Crime Stoppers wants information not the informants name.

DIABETIC CIRCULATION

One cannot understate the importance of proper foot care for diabetics. Serious problems may develop, especially if circulation is impaired. For one thing, tissue in the foot is less able to fight infection if circulation is poor.

Diabetics must be careful to avoid anything that further restricts circulation, such as smoking, wearing tight shoes or elastic-top socks, exposure to cold, and even sitting with legs crossed.

Diabetics, especially, should learn more about foot care. It's wise to schedule regular examinations, and a podiatrist should be consulted without delay if the feet develop numbness, tingling, or unrelieved swelling or become cold or blue.

Letters To The Editor

Bush for President

Ever since World War II, Americans have preferred a centrist and a moderate in the White House. Unless there is an unexpected lurch to the left Tuesday, Nov. 8, they will elect Vice President George Bush to lead our nation the next four years.

Bush has demonstrated the strength of character, adherence to conservative principles and experience in foreign affairs that the U.S. electorate seeks in a chief executive. The vice president's strong defense posture and his hard line on law and order are much preferred to his opponent's. Bush has pledged to carry on the policies of President Reagan. Whatever the shortcomings of the Reagan Administration's husbandry of the economy, the resultant peace and prosperity cannot be denied. Americans still remember Vietnam and the Carter debacle with our nation's economy. They are not about to take another chance on a Democratic administration in one generation.

Despite the protestations of Gov. Michael Dukakis, the Democratic candidate has been demonstrated to be the typical left-wing radical who long since has fallen out of favor with independents and abhorred by Republicans. Dukakis couldn't shake the onus of his veto of a Pledge of Allegiance bill or his support of ACLU tenets. His stands on abortion and opposition to the death penalty are not mainstream. As soon as his liberal credentials were perceived by independents and undecided voters, the tide turned in Bush's favor. One of the humorous touches of a campaign more noted for shrillness than reason was how quickly liberal television pundits bailed out on Dukakis as soon as they realized the governor had run out of gas.

In our opinion, George Bush represents the type of leadership Americans want in the White House. We wholeheartedly endorse his candidacy. Over the years, voters have become wary of putting all their eggs in one basket. It is almost a certainty that after the votes are counted, there will be a Republican in the White House who will be dealing once again with a Democratic majority in Congress. The two-party system is the beauty of our form of government. Perhaps that is the strength of the United States.

Nov. 8 Choices

CONGRESS

10th Dist.---Incumbent John E. Porter, a Republican, is an easy choice over Eugene F. Friedman, the Democrat. Porter is growing in stature for his fiscal integrity, leadership and broad knowledge of the legislative process.

12th Dist.---John A. Leonardi, a single focused Democrat who hasn't campaigned much, is no match for Philip M. Crane, the Republican incumbent. There is grousing in GOP ranks about Crane's detachment from Congressional duties and he had better take heed.

STATE SENATOR

31st Dist.---Adeline Jay Geo-Karis, incumbent Republican, rates the nod for reelection on her experience and indefatigable style, although she is open to criticism for wearing too many hats. Democrat Bob "Guess" Gesiakowski has tried before and should know the value of an early start. Gesiakowski is popular with senior citizens.

30th Dist.---Incumbent Republican David N. Barkhausen, an experienced legislator who is doing better since tending to affairs in his district, deserves reelection and should have no difficulty putting down the challenge of Herbert L. Gorrell, a retired military man who seems to enjoy running for office.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

59th Dist.---Virginia Fiester Frederick, Republican incumbent, no opposition.

58th Dist.---Grace Mary Stern, Democrat incumbent, no opposition.

61th Dist.---Democrat incumbent John S. Matijevich is a high ranking member of the House majority and richly deserving of reelection. Matijevich knows the issues

SHERIFF

Clinton O. "Clint" Grinnell, the Republican nominee, is a "policeman's policeman" who handled the difficult role of running the sheriff's office when the late Sheriff Robert Babcox became incapacitated. Grinnell demonstrated good taste and ability, and was his party's choice to fill out the unexpired Babcox term. John "Jack" Hoff, Democratic nominee, appears to be out of touch with fast-paced modern law enforcement. Grinnell has our wholehearted support.

STATE'S ATTORNEY

Robert J. Long, Democratic nominee, has demonstrated knowledge of the duties and operations of the office, but he started too late to mount a serious challenge of incumbent Republican Fred Foreman, who has compiled a commendable record despite being away from the office a good deal of the time with a national prosecutor's organization. Foreman is endorsed.

Foreman 'Selective'

Editor:

Fred Foreman, Lake County states attorney, is utilizing a sign on Rte. 12, near Volo, which is not legally located in accordance with county sign ordinances. This has occurred despite a complaint filed months ago with the Lake County Building and Zoning department. Could it be that Foreman is saying the sign is legal as long as his name is on it?

Similar strange enforcement by Foreman's office involves the county zoning ordinances. At least two trucking and excavating businesses have operated for years in the vicinity of the above mentioned sign, without proper zoning and without any real sanctions.

Comparing the recent vigorous and timely prosecution of the tree cutting developers near Wauconda with the sluggish, if any, enforcement in the Volo area, indicates a policy of selective prosecution. The Wauconda tree cutting incident supposedly cost the developers a $2,500 fine.

This citizen considers Fred Foreman unworthy of reelection.

Joseph Bogacz
Round Lake

Pay off for Jesse

Editor:

The Democrats keep telling us that they are trying to recreate the old Kennedy-Johnson ticket. Lyndon Johnson was never a very vocal member of the Kennedy administration. In fact, after the 1960 election, Vice President Johnson disappeared into the woodwork.

Perhaps this is what the Democrats have in mind for Bentsen, and is the key to the Jesse Jackson payoff. Lloyd Bentsen, keeping to his role as Lyndon Johnson, will vanish after the election. The true advisor and second banana for Mike Dukakis will be, and there's the payoff, Jesse Jackson.

Jesse Jackson's liberal views are a lot more in keeping with Dukakis and his Harvard advisors, than are the views of Lloyd Bentsen, a conservative who disagrees with Dukakis on fundamental issues such as Contra aid, school prayer and gun control.

Fred Bigham
Island Lake

Lots of value for vote

Editor:

Whoever dreamed medical care costs would skyrocket to the proportions of today! Over 75 percent of the residents at Winchester House are on public aid and need our county-wide support. Your "Yes" vote on Nov. 8 (Punch No. 175) will do so much for those so worthy of our consideration and will only raise the taxes on a $120,000 home in 1989 by a mere $8.

One day, perhaps a friend, relative, neighbor or maybe even yourself will use the services of this most worthy county home.

Norman H. Schaper
Libertyville

Worth the price

Editor:

On Nov. 8, the voters will be asked to vote on a tax referendum for an increase of 11 cents in the tax rate for the College of Lake County. This is the first time that the college has come to the voters for a tax increase since its inception 20 years ago. To continue its program of excellent services to the citizens of Lake County, the college has indicated that there is a need for this small increase, especially when state funding has been reduced.

Grayslake is proud to have the College of Lake County within its boundaries with the services which it provides to the citizens of Lake County and especially to the citizens of Grayslake.

I have considered this proposed tax increase for the college very carefully and am convinced that the effect on the taxpayer will be minimal when weighed against the benefits which the college provides in the programs and courses it offers to the citizens of Lake County.

Edwin M. Schroeder

School for offenders

Editor:

Statistically, it seems the majority of our offenders are classroom drop-outs. How about a sentence that would require these lawbreakers to go back to school? This would not mean just parking their

Viewpoint

Like it or not, race for president a television show

by BILL SCHROEDER

Where are the big highway political sign boards? What has happened to political bumper stickers?

On a weekend drive in north central Indiana to visit our freshman son at Purdue University for Dad's Day, nary a political poster board was sighted. We were in Quayle country, but the fact wasn't apparent unless you read the newspapers or watched television.

The only highway political poster noted was a Bush-Quayle sign board near O'Hare Field. We spotted a Bush-Quayle bumper sticker in the interstate. Dukakis signs weren't evident at all.

Obviously, campaign tactics for the office of the presidency have changed. It's all tv now. Congressman John Porter observed that the presidential campaign has turned into a "television show". Porter remarked, "I don't think the national Republican committee has allocated any money for bumper stickers." One time campaign staples, buttons and badges, aren't in evidence at all. Try and find campaign literature for the national candidates if you can.

We live in a changing world. Now the politicking styles have been recycled.

NO, NO! CON-CON---House minority leader Lee Daniels, west suburban Republican leader, told this writer that he knows of no political leader in either party supporting the Nov. 8 referendum on calling a Constitutional Convention in 1990. That's good news. Let's all hope they're speaking out in their home communities to defeat this dangerous referendum.

GIVING BLOOD---Hats off to high school students in this area who exceeded quota in the latest blood drive conducted by LifeSource, regional donor organization. Honored schools did 20 percent better than last year. The list included Stevenson, Buffalo Grove, Carmel, Lake Forest Academy, Lake Zurich, Mundelein and Wauconda.

Shortage of nurses gets worse by year

Decades ago I noticed a strange phenomenon. Despite all the bright graduating nurses, there was a persistent shortage. Many practiced for a short while or not at all and married, rarely to nurse again. Some only returned if widowed or divorced. There has been, in my opinion, too many nurses who preferred not to practice their profession. The reasons are perfectly valid.

The nursing shortage has now reached the stage where it has become public knowledge. Strangely, most people in the healing professions have known this for years, but it's getting the notice it deserves in the press and on television only since a new suggestion was made to do something about it. The problem is, the suggestion didn't come from the nurses' organizations. It came from the American Medical Assn. (AMA), which represents a substantial portion of this country's doctors. It should be no surprise that it caused the nurses to bristle and say, in effect, "Buzz off, busier."

Medical usings

By Leo Tannenbaum, M.D.

First, let's consider the extent of the shortage. To the consumer, the patient, there's a shortage if no one answers the ring and comes rushing to their bedside immediately. Despite the need, the nurse doesn't respond right away usually because someone else is being helped. This kind of thing can't be translated into numbers. There is no way to calculate who really needs the nurses more or who rang first. Another way is to ask the hospitals how many nurses they have budgeted for and what percentage of openings remain unfilled. They don't budget for them unless there's a real need. Positions unfilled late in 1987 have been quoted as 11.3 percent. The Medicare Commission on Nursing has a rough figure of 121,000 unfilled RN positions in hospitals and 6,500 in nursing homes.

Reasons for the shortage go back to the old days. The pay was low. The hours were long and shifts were on nights, weekends and, sometimes, were split. The work was arduous and often dirty or dangerous. There was not the respect that was deserved. In the '60s and '70s, there was great growth of the hospital and health industries with still more demands put on the nursing profession. Nurses countered by requesting more pay, and backed it up by going for their bachelor's and master's degrees. As greater technical skills were needed due to the increased sophistication of modern medicine, these demands frequently worsened by hospitals phasing out licensed practical nurses and graduate nurses with admirable bedside skills. Many hospitals and junior colleges closed their nursing schools since it was expensive. The swing was toward more training, college degrees and higher pay. With all this going on, the hospitals are pinched for funds and squeezed by demands of government and a litigious society. Some new hi-tech departments drained RNs due to better hours or higher pay. To top it off, the outside world offers careers to women now that weren't previously available. No one has been able to solve this shortage. It is estimated less than 60 percent of registered nurses (RNs) will work in hospitals in the year 2000.

The AMA, alarmed that the shortage is acute and patient care may suffer, proposed its plan with no intention to hurt nurses. The plan stated that there were obvious relatively unskilled, but no less important, bedside care services that didn't need an RN. This would free up the RNs for the more skilled care required by present advanced technology. The plan calls for the training of a new category of health carepersons called registered care technicians (RCTs). They would have a high school diploma and be trained in bedside care. Based on accomplishment, the plan envisions three levels of training—assistant (after two months of training), basic (after seven months), and advanced (after an additional nine months of training). Indirectly, it tries to make up for the loss of the diploma nursing schools that supplied licensed practical nurses, graduate nurses, and associates in nursing.

Musings. By the time this is printed, the nurses at Cook County Hospital will have voted for, gone on strike or even stayed on the job after a calm, reasoned settlement of all differences. One sensible route is to let the licensed practical nurses, associates and graduate nurses back in where they have been excluded. So that a turf war be avoided, if compromise can be worked out, the new ideas about registered care technicians may be given a trial. With this mix of health care, both patient and nurse will be preserved.

body into a seat, but a stipulation for passing or higher grades. Grades would be reported to a parole officer or other court appointed official.

This type of sentencing would not only keep these offenders busy, especially if they had to work during the day to pay their way, but hopefully, some of what they study might "rub off" and let them see their opportunities as new doors are opened to them.

This would not only cut down on the statistics of our uneducated citizens but might even lighten the load on the already overburdened taxpayers. Would something like this be feasible?

Vote 'no' on Con-Con

Editor:

On election day, the League of Women Voters of Lake County urges our fellow citizens to vote "no" on the question of whether to hold an Illinois Constitutional Convention.

In a statewide study, 96 percent of the participating league members opposed the call for three basic reasons:

Politically speaking....

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Endorsements, every political candidate worth a chicken dinner is reeling in the endorsements. Here's some of the many about which candidates are bragging:

SEN. ADELINE GEO-KARIS (R-Zion) of the 31st Dist.—United Mine Workers of America in a district where there are no mines and the Illinois Save Our Sports Political Action Committee, maybe for being a good sport.

REP. JOHN MATIJEVICH (D-North Chicago) of the 61st Dist.—State Nurses Active in Politics in Illinois, just in case he ever gets sick.

GRANT FARRELL of Antioch, Democratic candidate for state representative in 62nd Dist.—A plumber, he has been given an A by the Illinois Education Assn., as have all other Democrats on the ballot.

CONGRESSMAN JOHN PORTER (R-Wilmette) of the 10th Dist.—Watchdog of the Treasury Golden Bulldog Award for returning unspent office allowances. Anyone ever seen a golden bulldog?

ALL DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES—They endorsed each other. Why not? What have they got to lose?

ALL REPUBLICANS—They did the same for their kind. They don't want to lose.

Over in the Dist. 6 (Wauconda, Fremont, Cuba, Elia Fremont and parts of Libertyville and Vernon townships) County Board race things are so quiet voters may miss this one on the ballot.

The race is one for two seats. C. Richard Anderson is trying hard to keep his. That leaves a two-way scramble for Gerald Beyer's old one. Roberta "Bobbie" O'Reilly of Buffalo Grove thinks she has it locked up, so she is going to the usual close-by Republican functions and just waiting for the ballots to be counted. That leaves the campaign trail to Democrat Virginia Krueger of Mundelein. She doesn't want voters to wake up Wednesday morning after the election and wonder what happened. She's working hard, even harder, than she did in making the same race two years ago.

It doesn't have to be Saturday bath night for Avon Twp. Road Commissioner Patrick Anderson to get into hot water. For him it happens without even trying.

Two years ago some would-be politicians talked him into running for supervisor against the venerable Norman Geary. Anderson ended up in his old job.

Now, with the date to renew the election contract on his job fast approaching, Anderson has done it again. An attorney for the Old Shorewood Homeowners Assn. said the road commissioner misled property owners in getting a subdivision beach easement for a storm sewer. They were supposedly told it was to be 14 or so inches, not the 48 inches installed before the job was red tagged by the county. "I don't know if the highway commissioner intentionally misled these people or just changed his mind after the agreement was signed by the association," the attorney said.

Notice how the area congressional delegation is keeping its lips sealed on the impending military base closings to be announced at the end of this year. Until a few months ago, all congressmen, including John Porter (R-Wilmette) and Phillip Crane (R-Arlington Heights) said the military might of the nation would be compromised by the closing of Ft. Sheridan, Great Lakes and the Glenview Naval Air Station.

The wire services are now pointing the closing finger at Ft. Sheridan. They say it is a prime target with its "golf course and two beaches, which are not strategic to the military might of the Midwest." Defenders of Ft. Sheridan note it has been on the base-closing "hit list" for a decade or more. They are predicting another "ninth inning" save.

Porter, for your information, voted for the base closing bill in Congress earlier this month. Why? "I don't feel any bases in our area will be or can be closed," he said. "If Congress is serious about the national deficit, we have to do something about it. This sets up a procedure for tackling something that has been untouchable for years."

ACHS works evaluation

Antioch Community High School is scheduled for a North Central Assn. Evaluation and Visitation for the next school year, 1989-90. The purpose of this evaluation is to assist Antioch Community High School to strive towards improving its own program. The evaluation and improvement process consists of three parts.

The first being a self-study done by members of the Antioch Community High School faculty, board of education, community volunteers and students. This self-study will be an ongoing process for approximately 12 months.

The second portion of the evaluation will be a visitation by a team of educational personnel from many different areas examining all of the programs offered at Antioch Community High School.

Third third and perhaps the most important part of the evaluation and improvement process is that of implementation after the evaluation is complete and recommendations are made.

Brownies get special flag from the VFW

Brownie Troop 1366, which meets at Grass Lake School, has a new flag. It is a three-by-five-foot flag presented by Lake Villa

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4308 as part of its annual Americanism Night held earlier this month. The troop was also presented with booklets on flag etiquette and the Pledge of Allegiance. The flag and booklets were presented by troop leader Pamela Gates. Cardis and 15 Brownies at an Oct. 18 program held in the post home.

Making the presentation on behalf of the VFW were post Cmdr. Joseph Mandurano and women's auxiliary President Doris Mandurano. This program is part of the Americanism, community service and youth activity work of the post.

Cops nab teen burglar Antioch Police have remanded an Antioch 16-year-old male to Lake County Juvenile Court after he admitted to burglarizing Flip's. Red Hots in the Antioch Plaza on two separate occasions. Money was taken from Flips during closed hours last week.

The Antioch Police arrested the suspect and matched a footprint and fingerprint found at the crime scene to his. The subject confessed to last week's burglary and a previous one.

WEEKEND/LEISURE

and FOCUS ON FEATURES

Check it out!

by GLORIA DAVIS

Be there!

The holiday season is easing on down and in Richmond the merchants are holding their annual Country Christmas Walk, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday through Sunday, Nov. 11-13.

The College of Lake County's "Recent Works" art show will be running at the school's Community Gallery of Art until Nov. 13. Take note of Judith Roth's drawing "Meg with Pink Pants," reminiscent of the Cherry 7-Up ads. While we're into art, last chance to see the works of David Lucas at the Jack Benny Center in Bowen Park.

The Christmas bazaars are starting hot and heavy and Halloween isn't even here yet! One of the first will be held on Nov. 18 and 19, at the Winthrop Harbor Village Hall. Crafters are still needed.

Why not try Brookfield or Lincoln Park Zoo in the fall for a special day's outing? The dolphinarium at Brookfield remains open!

The Ringling Bros. Circus will be moving from the Chicago Stadium, closer to our area when it comes into the Rosemont Horizon from Nov. 1-13.

Musical notes

The Serendipity Singers starring Wauconda's own John

Ross will open at the Pheasant Run Dinner Theatre in St. Charles for two weekends on Nov. 11.

Multi-instrumentalist John Hartford, who composed the most recorded song in country music history, "Gentle On My Mind," will appear in concert at the Woodstock Opera House on Friday, Nov. 13.

The Libertyville-Freemont Concert Society, now in its 15th season, will open the "Music Close to Home" series at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 6, featuring the Northwestern University Saxophone Quartet at the Grace Lutheran Church in Libertyville.

On stage

Woody Allen's "Play It Again Sam," will be running at the Orchard Theatre, at the Old Orchard Country Club in Mount Prospect, through Nov. 13.

Don't miss all the grandiose of Broadway's best singing and dancing when Woodstock Opera House on Saturday, Oct. 29, at 2 and 8 p.m. when "Standing Room Only" will be on stage.

Good taste

Almost as good as visiting new England in the fall is the Lobsterfest at Andres On the Bay in Ingleside.

How about "Lake County's Biggest and best" brunch every Sunday at Zackery's at the Gurnee Holiday Inn.

Yum-yum-- an ice cream social at the Grant High School Cafeteria, from 1-4 p.m., on Saturday, Oct. 29, sponsored by the Eye Care Center of Lake County and St. Therese Medical Center.

Then there's the "10 Minute Breakfast Buffet" every Sunday, from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., all you can eat!

For $4.15, cram in as much as you want of the delicious ocean perch, popcorn shrimp and broasted chicken, every Friday, at the Sunset House on Golf Rd. in Waukegan.

Been a long time since we've had any of those scrumptious BBQ ribs at Gale St. Inn in Mundelein.

It's succulent prime rib every Saturday at the Wadsworth Inn.

Classic love story hits big

Michael Cerveris and Phoebe Cates play most famous star-crossed lovers of all time, 'Romeo and Juliet' in Goodman Theatre's version of Shakespeare's story. Lakeland's critic

Tom Witom give production big thumbs up! See review below.

No ho-hums in 'Romeo & Juliet'

by TOM WITOM

From the sets to the costuming to the creative interpretation, there's nothing ho-hum about the Goodman Theatre's presentation of "Romeo and Juliet."

Directed by Michael Maggio, this Shakespeare classic is guaranteed to evoke tears, laughter and a few unexpected

Even though the Bard's poetic language is often compromised, the bold modifications generally do not detract from the story. In the famous balcony scene, Juliet hangs over the second-story railing of the back porch of a tenement house, pouring her heart out for her new found love.

intermissions), the rolling scene changes and taut pacing keep it from dragging.

The star-crossed lovers who share the lead give performances filled with passion. Phoebe Cates, a lovely young woman with both film and theater credits behind her, is a charming Juliet. She's convincing as a head-over-heels-in-love teenager as she literally leaps into the arms of her young man. She is hilarious as she tries to mask her lonesomeness for Romeo with her grief for Tybalt, the nephew whom Romeo has slain.

No less a stunner is Michael Cerveris as Romeo, whether he's singing the praises of his fair lady or beseeching the counsel of Friar Lawrence on how to deal with his banishment.

Other strong performances are by Steve Pickering as Mercutio, the war vet who walks with a cane and is full of anger and sadness. And Peggy Roeder, as the nurse, catapults a minor role into something special.

"Romeo and Juliet," as fine a season opener as one could hope for, will play through Nov. 5.

Maggio sets the tragic love story in the 20th Century, at the end of World War I in the Italian neighborhood of a major American city.

The warring Montagues and Capulets fight their battles in the marketplace, using fists and daggers and an occasional pistol instead of dueling with swords.

Students make music for world of the deaf

by JOSEPH SOULAK

Students at Transfiguration School in Wauconda see, hear, talk and enjoy the rest of the world like those around them. Because they can, six of them are the darlings of a world that lives a little different. It is that of the hearing impaired.

The six are featured in a song entitled "Hand in Hand," which has won the hearts of the deaf world since its introduction Sept. 17. That was at the national convention of the National Center for Deafness in El Paso, Tx. A tape of the song was a featured part of the closing ceremony and drew thundering applause. Signing the words and music for the largely deaf audience was Marlee Matlin. She won an Academy Award for best actress for her non-speaking lead in "Children of a Lesser God," a movie with a deaf theme. Tapes of the three-minute song were also sold at the convention.

Winning the hearts of this "other" world came about through Transfiguration School music teacher Carol Crook. An acquaintance of hers, William Vaananen, who teaches music in Northbrook public schools, was commissioned over the summer to set to music words penned by Pat Sherer. She is chairman of the National Center for Deafness located in a near Chicago suburb. This was done with the idea the finished tape would be featured at the upcoming national convention.

When the music and words matched, a taping was scheduled at a downtown Chicago studio in early September. Twelve adults and six young singers were needed. Vaananen recruited his wife, Crook and other acquaintances. Crook was invited to bring along six of her music students. All of this happened in the opening weeks of school for Lorie Rowe, grade 8; Maggie Blake, grade 7; Coleen Halverson, grade 7; John Horan, grade 6; Grant Stanojev, grade 6; and Shane Elliott, grade 6. "They were just chosen, for no particular reason," their teacher said.

The six are glad they were picked. So is Crook. For her the experience of doing something for an audience that cannot hear the music of her world and that someone appreciates it is an experience not to be forgotten.

Justice, The National Divorce Forum For Men (N.D.F.M.), is having a free celebration at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 1 at the Tijuana Yacht Club, 516 N. Clark St., Chicago. The newly formed N.D.F.M. has already conducted seminars attempting to educate men as to their custody, visitation, support and related rights in pre and post-decree divorce. Jeffery M. Leving, a nationally known men's divorce attorney based in Chicago and Director of the N.D.F.M., will be hosting the event. Mark Podolner, Director of Fathering Educational Services; Steven Karshen, Director of Fathering Support Services; and Steven Stone, Family Therapist and Divorce Mediator, are all expected to attend.

Support group

A new support group has formed in Lake County for parents of children with Attention Deficit Disorder and Hyperactivity (A.D.D.). Dr. Thomas Phelan, clinical psychologist, will present a program on the myths of hyperactivity and attention deficit disorder at 7 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 7 at the Warren Newport Library. For more information call (312)223-6239.

Barrington Suzuki Strings

The Barrington school district grade school children will be performing as the Barrington Suzuki Strings at 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 22. The performance will be held at Greek Park in Island Lake. If the weather is inclement, the concert will be held at the Island Lake Village Hall.

Halloween costume party

The Lake County Hairdressers Assn. will hold its third annual Charity Halloween Costume Party from 8 p.m. to midnight on Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Northern Chalet, Rtes. 21 and 137 in Libertyville. The proceeds will be donated to Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospital. The donation is $10 payable at the door. Hours d'oeuvres, cash bar, and live music, provided by Smile the Band. The public is welcome, bring your friends and neighbors. For more information contact Barb Eldridge (312)566-4644.

ARP provide recovery tapes

The Addiction Recovery Program (ARP) of Condell Memorial Hospital

continues to provide free videotape screenings for area residents at its facility in Forum Square, Building One, 1117 S. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville. These videos bring stories of addiction, both alcohol and chemical, and the recovery process to life in a vivid, straight-forward manner. By reservation, individuals, small groups, and families may use the ARP screening room from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. To schedule a screening time, call (312)816-7867. Any contact with the program will be kept confidential.

AAUW, "Women and depression"

The Chain of Lakes Branch of American Assn. of University Women (AAUW) invites the public to attend a program entitled, "Women and Depression". The speaker will be Rev. Kathleen Busby, staff chaplain of Victory Memorial Hospital. This program is being held at the Victory Lakes Continuing Care Center, 1055 E. Grand Ave., Lindenhurst, at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 20. For more information contact Gloria Brda (312)356-6039.

Control cholesterol

Weight and cholesterol control will be the topic discussed by Dr. Shelia Ashbrook of the University of Illinois at the Oct. 27 meeting of the Lake County Home Economics Assn. to be held at the Grayslake Extension Auditorium, 33020 N. Hwy. 45. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. All area home economists and anyone with a degree or background in a related field is invited. Further information can be obtained by calling Barbara Dahl at (312)223-8627.

Fashion fest

Victory Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will be holding a food and fashion fest at noon on Saturday, Oct. 29 at the Country Squire Restaurant, Grayslake. Tickets are available at Victory Gift Shop or Victory Volunteer office. For more information call (312)360-4127. The fest will feature men and women's fashions with surprises guests and door prizes.

Discovery toys

Big Hollow Elementary School in Ingleside will be holding a Discovery Toy fundraiser to benefit the planned Taverne Library/Learning Center. The fundraiser will be held from 4 to 9 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 25 in the school gym. For further information call (312)546-4634. All are welcome to attend.

Planet party

The Lake County Astronomical Society is holding a Planet party at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 21 at the Illinois Beach State Park Nature Center, south of the lodge, along the lakefront in Zion. Come and see Mars and other things through telescopes provided by members of the society. NASA slides of the Martian surface will be shown at the nature center. In case of cloudy weather, the event will be held on Saturday, Oct. 22.

Condell run Nov. 5

The ninth annual running of the Condell Memorial Hospital Corporate Championship Race will take place at 9 a.m., Saturday, Nov. 5, at Highland School, Rockland Rd. and Stewart Ave.

Sponsored by Condell Memorial Hospital, in cooperation with its Liberty Road and Track Club, the run features a corporate/institution team competition but also provides the weekend jogger or walker the opportunity to participate in fun and exercise through team activity.

The top five teams will receive plaque awards with individual awards being presented to the top five overall male and female finishers. A special award is given to the corporate team with the greatest number of runners.

There is a minimum of five runners per team with no maximum limit set. The entry fee is $5 per person.

Registration may be done in person from Monday,

Oct. 31, through Friday, Nov. 4, in the department of public relations and marketing at Condell Memorial Hospital between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Use the north entrance at 303 Cleveland Ave., Libertyville. For additional information, call (312)362-2900, extension 5275.

What's Happening

Ghost stories at Volo Bog

At 7 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29 the Volo Bog State Natural Area and the Friends of Volo Bog will co-host its fourth annual Ghost Stories celebration. This year the program will be taking on a new twist, as the Friends have invited the Volo Bog Trotters, a folk music group from Volo, to be the opening act. Jenny Armstrong, Evanston; a professional storyteller, will then follow with scary tales "from the bog". Everyone is invited to come on out and enjoy this unique alternative to traditional Halloween activities. Parking is limited, the gates will open at 6 p.m. Reservations are required by calling Volo Bog at (815)344-1294.

Parents without partners

The general meeting for Parents without Partners will be held at the Cabriolet restaurant on Rtes. 137 and 21 in Libertyville. Newcomers orientation starts at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 28. A costume dance will follow at 9 p.m. For more information call (312)546-6918.

Ecumenical gathering

The Ministry Center of Lake County will have an "ecumenical" gathering (loaves and fishes) from 7 to 10 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 11. This will be held at the Hoffman House, one mile west of Fairfield Rd. on Hwy. 60. The guest speaker, Ann O'Hara Graff, theologian and lecturer, will address the topic Changing Ideas of Church. Lively discussions over homemade soup and bread follow these community building evenings. For more information call Virginia Hoffman (312)546-8788.

Spooky celebration

The Spirit of Milwaukee Theater, located in the lower level of the Grand Ave. Plankinton Arcade, invites all to a Halloween celebration on Saturday, Oct. 29. A 35-minute media slide show will be available for children under 12 from noon to 5 p.m. From 2 to 2:30 p.m. the Wacky Wanda Halloween skit and magic show, performed by Just Clown'Around, will take place. Complimentary treats, donated by the Confectionary will be distributed during the celebration. Costume contest for children ages one through 12 will begin at 2:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes. All children must be accompanied by an adult. For information call (414)271-7122.

Crafters sought

Applications are now being accepted for the remaining spaces at the Grayslake Art & Craft & Sale. The show will be held at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 26 and 27. Artists and crafters with unusual or unique self created items interested in booth space contact Lake County Promotions at (312)223-1433 or (312)356-7499.

Magic Fest

Waukegan's Festival of Magic, the city's fourth annual children's city wide Halloween party, will be held from noon until 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Waukegan Public Works, 1700 McAree Rd. Video tapes of the long awaited and ever popular ET movie as first prize in the costume contest will be awarded. Three different age categories will be judged throughout the day beginning at 12:45 p.m. with preschool through kindergarten. First, second and third place prizes will be given in each of the three age groups judged. The main attraction of the festival is the unique line-up of magicians. At noon, the slight of hand expertise of Mark Zwartz will be on stage for a 45 minute show. Bruce Walstad, the featured illusionist, will perform at 1:15 p.m. and Bibik, a magician with a comic flair, performs at 2:15 p.m. All that attend should bring chairs and blankets for seating. Light refreshments will be served. Admission is free, however, the City of Waukegan is asking that each person attending bring a can of nonperishable food to support the Lake County Feed the Hungry Program. For more information contact the city at (312)360-9000, ext. 513.

NISRA holiday bazaar

Northeastern Illinois Special Recreation Assn. (NISRA) will sponsor a holiday bazaar from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 10 at the Sea Princess, 1290 S. Milwaukee and Red Top Dr., Libertyville. Guest visitor, Otis Wilson from the Chicago Bears will be there from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Over 40 exhibitors will feature crafts, folk art, country crafts, jewelry, toys and baked goods for sale. Santa will be visiting the bazaar. For further information contact Betty at (312)680-1504 or Kathie at (312)438-3319.

Wilson to be at bazaar

At the NISRA Holiday Bazaar, guest visitor Otis Wilson is set for Thursday, Nov. 10, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Sea Princess (formerly The Landings), 1290 S. Milwaukee and Red Top Dr., Libertyville.

For further information, please contact Betty (312)680-1504 after 5 p.m. or Kathie (312)438-3310.

Charity costume party

The Lake County Hairdressers Assn. will hold its third Annual Charity, Halloween Costume Party from 8 p.m. to midnight on Saturday, Oct. 29, at the Northern Chalet, Rtes. 21 and 137, Libertyville. The proceeds will be donated to Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospital. The donation is $10 at the door. Costume prizes, hors d'oeuvres, cash and bar and live music provided by smile the band. The public is welcome, bring your friends and neighbors. For more information contact Barb Eldridge (312)566-4644.

Just For Seniors

It is imperative that older people continue to develop and change in a flexible manner if health is to be promoted and maintained. Failure of adaptation at any age or under any circumstance can result in illness.

The best way to avoid fatigue is to drink six to eight glasses of water a day.

It takes a little courage
And a bit of self-control,
And some grim determination
If you want to reach your goal.
It takes a deal of striving
And a firm and stern set chin
No matter what the battle,
If you're really out to win.

Be sure to consider our excellent service and low rates if you need nursing home care.

Waukegan Players to open 'Forum'

Waukegan Community Players presents for its first presentation of the 1988-89 season, the musical "A Funny Thing Happened on the way to the Forum."

Of course, nobody ever goes to the Forum but the show has everything that's been making farces raucously comic for 2,000 years, mistaken identities, masquerades, lecherous old duffers chasing pretty girls and young lovers panting to get married.

Frankly, there's no subtlety in this show. The humor is broad and rowdy and the laughs are deep.

No one can resist this merry mixture of burlesque, vaudeville, old-fashioned musical comedy when the comedians were the stars, and the racy humor that's been making people bust out in guffaws since the ancient Romans hits the Melba Wixom stage.

The show goes on Nov. 11, 12, 13, 18 and 19. All performances at 8 p.m. except Sunday the 13th, at 3 p.m.

Tickets are $7, Seniors and students' tickets are $5. For further information call (312)746-2213.

Hurricane Gilbert O, Jamaica Won!

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

I have just returned from an inspection tour of Jamaica. Throughout the island, I was asked the same question over and over. Where are the Americans?

I had to explain to the Jamaicans that most Americans believe their beautiful island was all but destroyed by Hurricane Gilbert.

Nothing could be further from the truth! As you travel from the airport to your resort, it is hard to believe a hurricane ever hit this island paradise. The palms extend their green branches, offering shade from the warm tropical sun. The seven-mile beach at Negril is as white and powdery as it ever was. If Gilbert did claim any of it, the ocean has since put it all back. The hillsides are painted red and yellow by tropical flowers against a green blanket of lush foliage.

I'm not claiming you will find no sign of Hurricane Gilbert. Many small villages are still without electricity or telephones. This is but a small inconvenience, however, to the very simple lifestyle of most of the Jamaican people.

What is hurting these people most is the loss of income derived from American tourism. Isn't it nice to know that you can help overcome the effects of Hurricane Gilbert by a vacation in Jamaica?

About 95 percent of the resorts are open and offering everything they did prior to Gilbert. There is absolutely no shortage of drinking water, food, electricity or rum punches at any of the resorts. The 5 percent that remain closed are taking advantage of a slow tourist time to do some needed remodeling more than to repair any major hurricane damage.

What is missing? The hordes of tourists normally crowding the better beaches. You can find your own private place in the sun. You can also find some real bargains. I was able to negotiate the rental of a jet ski for $10. Para-sailing was going for about $15. Now is the time to come back to Jamaica.

Horoscope by Chas. King Cooper

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) This will be your week to lead, as you take the initiative in planning social activities for your friends and loved ones. Avoid accepting an invitation from the boss this weekend.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Shopping excursions are favored this week. You may find yourself in a position to make a major purchase you've been considering for some time. Unexpected visitors rattle you toward the end of the week.

Gemini (May 21 to June 20) Although it may be a wise idea to stick close to home this week, you may have to accept certain social invitations. A surprise communication brings you fortuitous news.

Cancer (June 21 to July 22) An unexpected business opportunity will pop up this week, with little time for you to think. However, go with your intuitions right now. They will help you make the best decision.

Leo (July 23 to Aug. 22) This is a good week to consider making some travel plans. A friend can be helpful with this. Those of you considering changes in diet would do well to consult with an expert in the health field.

Virgo (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) This will be a good week to take a good look at yourself and implement some changes in your appearance. Changes in wardrobe need not be expensive if you shop wisely.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) While you may find yourself more in the mood to stay home this week, you'll find you'll have a lot of fun if you get out and about with friends. News from afar will be good for you. Stay on the alert for incoming mail.

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You will make much progress this week in your career. However, make sure you check out the fine print before signing anything. All facets of business deals should be examined closely.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) People with whom you work in close conjunction will be most cooperative this week. As a result, you will find yourself very productive. It is wise to be a careful consumer this week.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Those of you who are considering borrowing money will find this to be the week for you. A fortuitous circumstance at work could lead to exciting opportunities in the future.

Aquarius (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) Romance and harmony are in the stars this week, allowing you to spend some enjoyable time with your mate and family members. Co-workers will be receptive to new ideas.

Pisces (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) You will be able to get much done at work this week, despite the fact that you may find yourself daydreaming and easily distracted. Be sure to concentrate on your career now.

seat. Halas will try to replace former board member Tony Serdar, who decided not to run for reelection. Opponents Ray Vukovich and Henry Jeffers, both of Waukegan, could make a surprise showing and give the Republicans something to cheer about in this district.

Eleanor Rostron and Bob Neal, both Republican incumbents in Dist. 3, should be expecting a big challenge from Bertha Ogrin of Waukegan and Matthew Balen of Wadsworth, the brother of board member John Balen. Many feel Neal, also of Wadsworth, is in trouble because of his highly publicized views on open space. Rostron is a resident of Waukegan.

In Dist. 4, the only incumbent is County Board Chairman Jim Fields. Lake

Villa resident Suzi Schmidt unseated Fred Popp by defeating him in the Republican primary this spring. The Democrats in this district are Gene Morris of Venetian Village and Scott Brissey of Lindenhurst.

The only unopposed race for Lake County Board is in Dist. 5, where incumbents Andrea Moore and James Dolan are running for reelection. Both are Republican candidates from Libertyville.

Dist. 6 could be the most interesting race to watch, where Republican candidate Roberta O'Reilly could be the top vote getter over incumbent C. Richard Anderson of Barrington. The only Democrat in the race is Virginia Krueger of Mundelein. O'Reilly unseated Jerry Beyer of Wauconda in the primary.

AIDS info to be aired

Can I become infected with AIDS? How safe is my family? What are my chances of AIDS infection if I give blood? How can I protect myself and my family from AIDS?

Believing that education about infection and disease can serve as a method of prevention and help eliminate hysteria, the Dept. of Nursing Services at Condell Memorial Hospital will present a free program, "AIDS—Facts For the Public", at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 28.

Study parking

PARK CITY --- Park City City Council members pledged to work with the City of Waukegan in developing a plan for parking spaces along Knight Ave. The street, which is divided into the two municipalities, is presently closed for parking. Ald. Betty Humphrey said a letter will be sent to Waukegan.

Ramirez on job

HAWTHORN WOODS---Laura Ramirez started work as the first village administrator at Hawthorn Woods on Oct. 3. She formerly had been an assistant administrator for the Village of Mundelein. Hawthorn Woods did extensive homework, including interviewing others who are village administrators, during more than a year of planning done to establish the structure of the position.

Cuneo hearing held

VERNON HILLS---About thirty people attended a public hearing on the proposed annexation by the village on the Cuneo property between Vernon Hills and Libertyville. The main message was delivered by people from Libertyville, and a few from Mundelein, who argued against a huge development proposed for the area. Most of the 1,174 acres of farmland north of Hawthorn Center have been targeted for acquisition by the Libertyville Open Space Dist, as well.

Task force formed

MUNDELEIN---Creation of a task force that will solicit funding from community sources for a planned purchase of computers has been approved by the Dist. 75 Board of Education. The task force will consist of members of the board, parents, staff and administrators, and is to be selected by the November voting meeting of the board.

Contaminated soil

ROUND LAKE AREA---Using contaminated soil, Berger excavating topped off the park district's new recreational field with junk-yard fill from the old Markham junk yard, once located behind the new Mallard Creek Shopping Center. "As landscapers worked with the soil, we noticed they were picking up a lot of stuff. We noticed old fuel pumps, rods, oil, engines, all kinds of debris you would find in an old auto grave yard," said Round Lake Area Park Dist. Dir. Robert Rolek, who made Berger replace the six to eight inches of so-called top soil.

Readers rank high

LAKE VILLA---Students in the Lake Villa Grade School system rank well above the state and national average in reading, according to a new state test. Third graders had an average test score of 284, sixth graders tested 289 and eighth graders had an average score of 270. The state norm was 250 in all cases. Lake Villa schools use the Great Books program for reading assignments and the majority of assigned reading homework.

Consider Apts.

NORTH CHICAGO --- The North Chicago City Council will consider whether or not E.J. Plesko and Associates will receive an inducement resolution for a 224-unit apartment complex at the next city council meeting. Plesko said the Deer Valley Apartments would be located on Waukegan Rd. across the street from Abbott Laboratories and will offer one and two bedroom units.

Wetlands starts

WADSWORTH -- Lake County politicians along with Environmental Protection Agency officials and private donors gathered in ankle deep mud for the inauguration ceremony of the Des Plaines River wetlands project. Four of the eight wetlands have been constructed. Intergovernmental cooperativeness was praised at the ceremony.

Director is fired

LAKE ZURICH---Applications are being received for a director of parks and recreation. The new director will succeed Sharon Morris, who was asked to resign "because she has not shown the foresight necessary for an effective department director," in the words Village Admin. Edward Geiek. Morris has held the post for 13 years. In protest, two volunteers responsible for proving electric service and sound for the annual haunted house, quit. The popular attraction will not open this week, costing the park department an estimated $8,000 in revenues.

Enrollment blitz

FOX LAKE---Big Hollow School Dist. 38 and Grant Community High School Dist. 124 could see major changes in their enrollment due to a Sullivan Lake Planned Unit Development in the Village of Lakemoor. The "Four Seasons of Sullivan Lake" project could double the enrollment of Big Hollow and add approximately 210 students to Grant if fully developed. When completed, the entire development will consist of 2,400 units, including townhomes and apartments. First occupancy is scheduled for Nov. 1. Some amenities of the development will include an 18-hole championship golf course, health spa, tennis courts, swimming pool, etc.

Fire force to grow

ISLAND LAKE---Dedication of addition to fire station with offices, sleeping quarters and other facilities will, hopefully, lead to formation of three-shift, full-time staff of firefighters to provide around-the-clock protection for this community. Until funds are appropriated and personnel hired, the Wauconda Volunteer Fire Dept. will continue providing local fire protection.

Petitions ready

NEWPORT TWP. --- Petitions for the 1989 Newport Twp. election may be picked up at Wadsworth Village Hall at 14155 Wadsworth Rd. between 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday through Friday or by calling the Newport Twp. office at (312) 623-1168 or the town clerk at (312) 336-6500.

School controversy

WAUCONDA---School policy and student's rights have come into contention over the restrictions on leaflet distribution in Wauconda Unit School Dist. 118. It has been the policy of Dist. 118 for the past four years to allow students to pass out unsponsored literature with the school regulating time, place, and manner of distribution. A strong letter of protest from Pastor Christopher Barnes of the Wauconda Evangelical Free Church surfaced after the board's decision to revise and clarify the policy by having all such literature include the following statement: This publication is not the product nor sponsored by School Dist. 118."

Annexation okayed

VERNON HILLS---Property near Half Day along Rte. 45 just west of Milwaukee Ave., belonging to Frank Tischer as well as other owners, has been annexed by the village, after Tischer petitioned the village board for that purpose. Allowed on the property, dubbed the Tischer annexation, will be operation and maintenance of a kennel, a limousine company and a landscaping firm, as well as two mobile homes and one single-family apartment.

Hunt new business

LINDENHURST---Formation of an economic development committee to bring new business to the area is being undertaken by Mayor Robert Ratch of this community and Mayor Joyce Frayer of Lake Villa. They say the common border they share in the same township with dozens of similar taxing bodies with the need for more of a tax base calls for such a committee. Ratch feels that once the "message is out that business is welcome more will follow." He said: "Business begets business."

Bankers happy

ANTIOCH---Randy Miles, president of the State Bank of Antioch and Ted Axton, president of the First National Bank of Antioch, say that they have seen a good increase in financial traffic in their institutions in deposits, loans and investments. They add they expect continued steady growth in the Antioch area with more to come in the not too distant future in both residential and commercial growth.

Ponder referendum

WADSWORTH --- Wadsworth voters will tell the village board in an advisory referendum Nov. 8 what they think of the current rate of police protection given by Lake County Sheriff's Dept. personnel. Mayor Ed Tomkowiak said pros and cons of contracting more protection time from the sheriff's department will be explained in the next village newsletter.

Misunderstood man

LAKE VILLA---Assessor Mike Karasinski says his office is the most misunderstood in local or state government. In announcing he will seek a third, four-year term, Karasinski said many people think his office sets the tax rate. It only assigns a value to property, he said. Those who don't like the size of their tax bill should complain to the schools, villages and townships that set them, he said.

Wins grant

NORTH CHICAGO---North Chicago Dist. 64 has won a $100,000 grant from the state Board of Education to fund a pre-school screening program for students deemed to be at risk.

Mills impact

GURNEE --- Gurnee Fire Dept. Deputy Fire Chief Tim McGrath estimated that the proposed Gurnee Mills will have an impact of adding one full-time staffer to the department's fire prevention bureau. McGrath estimated that the mall will generate an additional 268 fire calls for the Warren-Waukegan Fire Protection Dist. The next hearing for Western Development Corp.'s proposed Gurnee Mills will be held Nov. 1 at 7:30 p.m. at Warren Twp. High School's auditorium.

Grand Pier

FOX LAKE---The Village of Fox Lake has been given verbal approval for construction of The Grand Pier, a multi-use pier extending approximately 150 feet into Pistakee Lake at the foot of Grand Ave. The pier will include a gazebo and have an off-shore pavilion. It will feature decorative lighting and flagpoles. The pier is patterned after municipal fishing piers in Florida. Fox Lake Mayor William Dam

Lake County clerk's office prepares for spring election

"Even though the Nov. 8 election is a few weeks off, the Lake County Clerk's office has begun preparations for the Consolidated Primary Election to be held April 4, 1989 when municipal, township, park and library officials will be elected," reports County Clerk Linda Hess.

The petition packets for the February and April elections are available for circulation. Anyone wishing to be a candidate in February or April must file petitions with requirements for minimum number of signatures, a statement of candidacy, as well as other information required by state statute.

"Packets are now available in municipal

Attendance up

GURNEE --- Attendance at Great America theme park in Gurnee reached more than two million this year. Gurnee Village Admin. James Hayner told the board of trustees that the new roller coaster ride, the Shockwave, also helped to distribute the crowd throughout the park.

and town clerks' offices and park and library district offices; and they include complete instructions for filing petitions and the statements of candidacy," Hess explained.

Those who wish to run for local offices whose terms expire in 1989 should go to their local office to pick up a petition packet. The completed packet must be filed with the appropriate clerk or district secretary between Dec. 12 and Dec. 19, 1988 in order to be placed on the ballot for the February Consolidated Primary Election, and between Jan. 16 and Jan. 23, 1989 to be placed on the ballot for the April 4 election.

Fox Lake

Kelli Martin, branch manager of Home Federal Bank for Savings in Fox Lake, announced that the branch will be celebrating a "Grand Re-opening." The activities will take place during regular banking hours on Saturday, Oct. 29. The activities at the Fox Lake branch include raffles, balloons, free refreshments, drawings for prizes, and a new and unique month-long CD which offers a free General Electric AM/FM clock radio to Home Federal Bank customers who invest $500 or more.

Gurnee

One of the oldest buildings in Gurnee is getting a facelift. The former Depke Garage, built in 1929, will become home to Depke's Village Center. Robert Depke, who was born in the building at Emerald and Grand Aves., said that businesses would be rented on the bottom floor and that two apartments would be rented on the top floor. Depke, who is also Warren Twp. Supv., will provide for 50 cars and landscaping would be placed in front of the structure.

Save money
on your tax
obligations

by NICK J. BROWN

Capital tax....That's one you haven't heard of before. No, not capital gains.

This is what the government assesses you after you have spent a lifetime accumulating investments and savings.

Paying income taxes and capital gains on the taxes made those savings and investments grow and then when you die the government assesses a capital tax known generally under the term "Federal Estate Tax".

This is the most severe tax as it taxes money that has already been taxed several times. It is a tax on tax! Death and taxes are the only two things that commonly can be depended on and the government will get its share of your lifetime savings.

The current law provides for a unified credit or exemption of the tax on up to $600,000 per individual. A husband and wife can give their spouse all of the assets at death which substantially limits the taxes on the first to die.

However, when the second spouse dies, that tax may be up to 60 percent of the

This way
to wealth

taxable estate. Approximately $1,200,000 can be held by a husband and wife with no estate tax being levied.

There are only four ways to pay these taxes:

1. Liquidate estate assets by selling them, commonly called "a forced sale" with no planning.

2. Have your executor borrow the money from a bank, having the estate pay back both the interest and principle. This too does not take previous planning.

3. Buy estate tax discount life insurance. This will cost about two percent of the projected taxes per year.

4. Pay estate taxes on the ten year installment plan for that portion of your estate tax that relates to your family owned business under certain conditions.

Estate taxes are an economic and political tool by which Uncle Sam collects revenues from your lifetime investments. By proper planning with your attorney, accountant and financial planner these onerous taxes can be minimized.

Matching funds available for hazardous waste plan

Illinois businesses and industries, public and private researchers, and consultants and vendors in the hazardous waste field are now eligible to apply for funds up to $50,000 as part of a state-sponsored matching funds program.

The RRT (Recycling and Reduction Techniques) matching funds are awarded to applicants developing new waste reduction techniques or testing new applications of existing methods. Awards will be given for both large research projects (up to $50,000) and for smaller projects ($5,000 to $10,000) such as waste reduction audits and developing waste reduction plans.

The matching funds are administered by the Illinois Hazardous Waste Research and Information Center (HWRIC), a part of the Dept. of Energy and Natural Resources.

In addition to encouraging innovations and reducing waste generation, the grants could ultimately save Illinois industries millions of dollars by reducing costs associated with hazardous waste disposal.

Projects limited to basic research or those proposing known or previously piloted technologies are not eligible.

The deadline for applications is Dec. 1. For more information, or to receive a "request for proposal" call HWRIC at (217)333-8940.

Illinois Bell '800' number users to pay lower rates

Customers for Illinois Bell's Chicago-area "800" service will pay lower rates and be eligible for greater volume discounts under a plan the company proposed to the Illinois Commerce Commission (ICC) to reduce rates by $11.8 million.

If approved, rates for the first 80 hours of usage per month would be significantly reduced.

Customers also would be eligible for volume discounts when their "800" usage reaches a total of 15 hours per month, rather than the current structure that requires total calls on all "800" lines to average 15 hours per month before discounts become available.

For example, a Chicago-area business which would not have been eligible for volume discounts when it had 56 hours of calling on four "800" lines (an average of 14 hours per line), would now receive the volume discount for 56 hours of use.

That business then would pay only $99 monthly per line, instead of $163 per line.

"All of our '800' customers will benefit from this plan, but it will be especially attractive to smaller business customers," said Linda Houston, Illinois Bell product manager. "This will make it more beneficial for customers to increase the number of their '800' lines and become even more accessible to their clients."

The filing also proposes reductions in Illinois Bell's portion of Intrastate "800" service, which is provided jointly with AT&T.

Following is a summary of proposed and current charges for Chicago-area "800" service for calls within the 312 area code:

New Tariff, total hours 0 to 25, rate $7.60; over 25 to 50, rate $6.80; over 50 to 100, rate $6; over 100 to 200, rate $5.60; and over 200 rate $5.60.

Existing tariff, average hours per line 0 to 15, rate

$11.68; over 15 to 40, rate $11.43; over 40 to 80, rate $6.35; over 80 to 140, rate $4.83 and over 140, rate $3.25.

Following is a summary of proposed and current charges for Illinois Bell's portion of Intrastate "800" service, which is provided jointly with AT&T.

New tariff, total hours 0 to 25, rate $9.50; over 25 to 50, rate $8.60; over 50 to 100, rate $7.40; over 100 to 200, rate $7; and over 200, rate $6.50.

Existing tariff, average hours per line: 0 to 15, rate $13.89; over 15 to 40, rate $13.59; over 40 to 80, rate $7.47; over 80 to 140, rate $5.71; and over 140, rate $3.83.

Rates for non-dedicated "800" service, which allows "800" calls within the 312 area code to be completed over a regular business line, will remain at $12 per hour for all usage.

Executive Parke

The groundbreaking at Continental Executive Parke, Vernon Hills, was commemorated with a special tree planting ceremony meant to symbolize the extensive landscaping planned for the 515-acre business park. Present (from left) were: Alvin Israel, Vernon Hills village trustee; Larry Laschen, Vernon Hills village manager; Phil Ellis, Mayor of Vernon Hills; and Lawrence Krueger, vice president of Prentiss Properties.

Home Federal garners basis points

Olympic Gold Certificate of Deposit holders at Home Federal Bank for Savings in Waukegan have each garnered 36 basis points interest on their CD's, as a direct result of the 36 gold medals earned by U.S. Olympic athletes in Seoul, Korea.

Under a special promotional program, the bank offered one-year CD's which would earn 7.50 percent interest, plus an additional basis point for every gold medal won by the U.S. Olympic team. The medal total brings the CD's interest rate to 7.86 percent, which was changed from the original 7.50 percent on Oct. 3, the day after the closing ceremonies in Seoul.

Home Federal is a $300 million Waukegan institution with offices in Fox Lake, Grayslake, Lindenhurst, Round Lake Beach and Lake Zurich. All accounts at the institution are insured up to $100,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

"I LOVE LUCI."

Six months ago Katie McKenna and her family moved to Lake County. They needed a new family doctor, so Katie called Luci at Condell's Doctors Office Connection, a physician referral service.

Unlike other referral services, D.O.C. goes far beyond using a computerized system to match a patient's special medical needs with a doctor. Luci also takes the time to match intangibles (such as a patient's personality and temperament) with one of our many talented and experienced specialists. And if it's urgent, we will schedule a doctor's appointment while you are on the line. It's this kind of personal attention that makes Luci and D.O.C. so special.

Just ask Katie.

And call Luci at DOC-2900, ext. 5610.

You'll love our healthy attitude.

Veteran Blue Devils recall Warren High's beginning

By STEVE PETERSON

When Frieda Ray attended the spanky new Warren Twp. High School in Gurnee, she did not have to worry about the bus being late, a new sign being put up in front of the high school or changes on the school board.

For when Ray attended Warren, she took a much different mode to get to class on time.

"We used to ride the milk trains. We had classes at Woodland Hall. They divided downstairs into four classrooms and the upstairs was the study hall," Ray recalled.

Ray was a part of Warren's first graduating class - 1918. Memories of old Gurnee abounded in a brand new cafeteria as the high school hosted class representatives from Class of 1918 to 1940 as part of school's Homecoming activities. A cake was presented to the former Blue Devil students, who were served by ARA Services staffers.

There were six people in Ray's graduating class and less than 40 in the entire four-year Warren High. There was no need for a school reform movement in Ray's days.

"We had history, language, English, chemistry and physics," Ray said.

"The kids came from long distances. Some came on the milk train and others rode horseback," Ray added.

Some Blue Devils came in the horse and buggy as there used to be horse barn. There was no place for gyms, cafeterias or libraries. Ray lived the same place where she resides today, seven miles northwest of Gurnee on the last farm of Newport Twp. a 40 acre parcel.

Ray, 80, was not only one of the first Warren students, but her family was one of the first WTHS families.

For Margaret Lahey, Class of 1924, the reunion was a second coming home. A month ago, Lahey attended an open house at Millburn School for a new library and classrooms where she taught after graduating with a WTHS diploma.

Lahey said 10 people are still living from her class.

Jim Balmes took the school spirit a step further than most. Balmes, Class of 1938, and classmates donated $625 to Warren to purchase materials for the library.

"We celebrated our 50th reunion in September and we had 70 percent of our class here," Lois Porter Balmes said.

The Balmes family sent six children through Warren and each earned a college degree. She said WTHS offered several activities for students who were attending high school during the Depression era.

"We did not have money or cars. That (school activities) was our whole entertainment," she recalled.

"I hope they have a beautiful library," Balmes said.

New Medicare plan comes at high cost

Medicare, the Federal health insurance program for the elderly and disabled, has been expanded to protect millions of elderly beneficiaries from catastrophic hospital, doctor and prescription drug bills. The protection is included, appropriately, in the Medicare Catastrophic Coverage Act of 1988 approved this year by Congress. It will be phased in over three years starting Jan. 1, 1989. The changes represent the most extensive overhaul of Medicare since the program was created in 1965.

But Congressman John Porter (R-Wilmette) of the 10th Dist. warns it will be expensive. "Many people will pay for benefits they will never use," he said, "and be assessed for them." As he sees it, this is protection that comes at a price.

Beginning next year, beneficiaries will be entitled to unlimited free hospitalization approved by Medicare following payment of a $564 annual deductible. When this has been done, Medicare pays 100 percent of all approved charges covered under Part A hospital insurance regardless of cost, length of stay or number of times a person is admitted to a hospital in one year.

Beginning in 1990, a covered person's out-of-pocket expenses for physician services and medical supplies covered by Medicare Part B will be limited to $1,370 per year. However, a person is required to pay an annual deductible of $75 plus 20 percent of the charges or services until the $1,370 figure is reached. Medicare then pays 100 percent of all other approved charges.

A new prescription drug benefit will be phased in starting in 1990 starting with outpatient drugs taken at home. Most other prescription drugs along with insulin will be covered as of Jan. 1, 1991, with Medicare paying 50 percent of approved charges in excess of $600. In 1992 Medicare will pay 60 percent of approved drug charges after the individual covers a deductible, estimated at $654. In 1993 and thereafter, Medicare will pay 80 percent of allowable drug costs in excess of the deductible in the new catastrophic coverage premiums have been sufficient to offset costs.

Payment for prescription drugs is the one good part of the plan, Porter says.

Nursing home coverage in a skilled facility has been changed from 100 days per benefit period to 150 days per year. The requirement that a beneficiary be hospitalized three days immediately prior to entering a nursing facility has been eliminated. Individuals will be required, however, to make copayments estimated at $22 per day in 1989 for the first eight days of care. This part of the plan is for skilled care homes. Most nursing homes in the United States provide only custodial care and do not qualify.

All benefits will be self-funding in the form of added premiums. The extra charge for Part B coverage will be $4 per month in 1989 and will gradually rise to $10.20 per month in 1993. This is addition to the Part B premium of $24.80 for this year, which is subject to annual change.

Additionally, a supplemental premium must be paid for Part A coverage based on income tax returns. All persons who pay at least $150 in taxes will be assessed $2.50 starting in 1989 and gradually increase to $42 in 1993 for each $150 of income tax due.

There is some good in all of this. The maximum assessment anyone will have to pay in one year is $800 in 1989, $850 in 1990, $900 in 1991, $950 in 1992 and $1,050 in 1993.

"This is in the form of an extra tax some people can ill afford," Porter said.

"When people find out more details of the cost of this program they will be outraged," he predicted, "especially since many of them will not use the benefits provided."

He calculates a person with a $14,000 income will pay an extra $800 per individual or $1,600 per couple, a figure that will rise in succeeding years to a maximum of $1,050 per individual or $2,100 per couple.

Porter is the sponsor of legislation to repeal this act, saying the coverage can be provided much more economically by the private sector. "Also, this plan does not cover long-term nursing home care," he said. "This is the most troublesome issue facing the seniors of this country. Long-term nursing home care can be tremendously expensive and, in cases, force people paying for it into bankruptcy."

Cong. John Porter

Working though Easter Seals, the network of support services received a state grant. The network includes a full-time office worker, Sue Martin, who has assumed the duties which executive board members used to perform. The network also has an advisory board of physicians and experts. But one of the problems those concerned with late-effects of polio have is an entire generation of medical school students have been educated without a complete knowledge of polio's after effects. These effects can appear 10 to 20 years after the original disease.

According to the polio network, the causes of post-polio pain are postural substitution for weak muscles, fixed deformities, muscle overuse, tendinitis and bursitis, nerve compression syndromes, secondary osteoporosis and sometimes osteoporosis and phlebitis. Mechanical strain caused by overuse is the common denominator.

Treatment, according to Irwin M. Siegel, M.D., is designed to relieve strain, while retaining sufficient mobility and stability for weight bearing. Angular deformities for example knock knee, bow legs, etc. are reduced to a pain free angle.

"People have been ignoring the pain for so long," Justice said.

Donohue pointed out that there are no federal agencies actively helping the victims financially.

The Gurnee facility is located at 3615 W. Grand Ave. The phone numbers are (312) 244-8478 or 1-800-24-POLIO.

Harry H. Siebel

age 42, of Antioch, Illinois, passed away suddenly Sunday, October 23, 1988, at St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite, Lake Villa, Illinois.

He was born April 25, 1946, in Chicago, Illinois, and lived in Lindenhurst before moving to Antioch five years ago. He was a member, Vice President of the Congregation and Financial Secretary of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church of Lake Villa. He received his B.A. degree from Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois, and his M.A. degree from Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois. He was a teacher in Zion from 1965 to 1977, coming to the Antioch Community High School in 1978. He was a German teacher at the Antioch Community High School, the department head of foreign languages and a sponsor of the German Club and Academic Club. On June 14, 1969, he married Carol Blodgett in Chicago, Illinois.

Survivors include his wife, Carol; two sons, Kurt and Karl at home; his maternal grandmother, Karla Bjorgum of Chicago; and one brother, Gerry (Kathryn) Siebel of Niles, Illinois.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Thursday, October 27, 1988, at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Lake Villa, Illinois, with Pastor John Zellmer officiating. Interment will be private. Friends may call at the church from 10 a.m. until time of services on Thursday. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Organ Fund of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, 25100 W. Grand Avenue, Lake Villa, IL 60046, in his memory. Funeral arrangements were entrusted to STRANG FUNERAL HOME, 1055 Main Street, Antioch, Illinois.

LaVerne E. Vallee

age 68, of Antioch, Illinois, passed away Saturday, October 22, 1988, at the St. Joseph Care Center, Phoenix, Arizona.

She was born August 26, 1920, in Cleveland, Ohio, and had lived in Mt. Prospect, Illinois, before moving to Antioch in 1983, but had a summer home in the area since 1947. She was a member of St. Peter's Church in Antioch. On April 29, 1938, she married Charles L. Vallee in Chicago, and he preceded her in death on November 20, 1987.

Survivors include one son, Charles S. (Barbara) of Rolling Meadows, Illinois; two daughters, Geraldine Anderson and Joyce (Ralph) Zeien, both of Scottsdale, Arizona; one sister, Ethel Sampson of Harlingen, Texas; two brothers, Raymond (Noreen) Vogt of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and Jack (Rheta) Vogt of Chicago, Illinois; eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services with Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, October 28, 1988, at St. Peter's Church, Antioch. Interment will be at Mt. Carmel Cemetery in Antioch. Friends may call at the STRANG FUNERAL HOME, 1055 Main Street, Antioch, from 5 to 9 p.m. on Thursday.

By Landmark Designs

One of the most appealing parts of the Clemson is its entry. A wide tiled front hall is the crossroads of this contemporary split-level home. Front and garage doors both open into the main entry so that owners who normally drive directly into the garage don't have to slip in a remote back door to their house.

Straight ahead of the front door is the family room, with wood stove and access to the large rear deck. Being so close to the entry, the family room functions as an informal parlor. Along the way is a half bath. Kids playing outside can dash in for a "pit stop" without charging through the entire house.

Four steps up from the entry is the living/dining/kitchen level, while the main staircase descends in one straight flight to the floor of the vaulted living room just above the entry hall. Two bedrooms and a master suite occupy the top floor, along with the main bath. The master suite contains its own private bath, as well as a double vanity and walk-in closet.

Separation of public and private areas of the Clemson means that the cooks can bustle in the kitchen any time without disturbing people above. The U-shaped kitchen has ample counter space, and serves easily into both the family room and formal dining room. One wall has a see-through to the family room, so that a person at the counter can keep an eye on kids or company below. The family room and dining room also communicate via an outside deck and steps. Hosting large summer parties is easy with the wide choice of outdoor serving areas.

For a study plan of the Clemson (288-06), send $5.00 to Landmark Designs, P.O. Box 2832, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering). Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

ACHS Homecoming '88

Antioch High School's homecoming celebration lasted for a week which included the crowning of Brad Nauman in Mr. Antioch contest, culminating with pep rally on Friday, homecoming parade and game on Saturday; and also the homecoming dance and crowning of Queen Kelly Maple and King Brad Nauman. Highlight of celebration was the homecoming of ACHS Class of 1968. --- Photos by Steve Young.

Churchill accused of senior bias

A rating of legislators and senators by the Illinois State Council of Senior Citizens shows that State Rep. Robert Churchill (R-Lake Villa) of the 62nd Dist. is a "foe" of seniors, says Democratic challenger Grant B. Farrell of Antioch.

"Out of 10 bills that impacted seniors last year, Churchill voted against all but one of them," said Farrell, who is running against Churchill in the November election.

Based on their voting records in 1987-88, the State Council of Senior Citizens rated state legislators and senators into the top categories of "family" and "friend," the middle categories of "fair" or "faint-hearted" or the bottom-of-the-list category of "foe." Those in the foe category, including Churchill, voted against seven or more bills that would have directly impacted seniors. Those issues included a displaced homemakers bill, insurance, housing, health care, utilities and pharmaceutical benefits issues.

"We intend to widely publicize these results," said Larry Yeast, chairman of the state council's legislative committee. Throughout October, "leaders of the state council will drive throughout Illinois, stopping at dozens of cities, distributing voting records to senior citizens groups and centers and talking to older voters. We encourage seniors to vote for lawmakers who vote for senior issues. It's that simple," Yeast said.

"It's clear that Churchill is not a friend of senior citizens," Farrell added. "In the future legislators must exercise better judgement in looking at issues that are important to seniors. Seniors pay taxes and have been paying taxes for decades. It's time they got some return on their tax dollars."

French Apple Custard Tart

15-oz. pkg. ready-to-bake pie crust
1 tsp. flour

Filling

3 cups (3 medium) sliced, peeled apples
1/4 cup sugar
2 Tbs. butter or margarine
2 tsp. lemon juice

Custard

1/3 cup butter or margarine, softened
1/3 cup sugar
1 Tbs. flour
1/2 to 1 tsp. cinnamon
2 eggs, slightly beaten

Creme Anglaise

1 cup whipping cream
2 egg yolks
1/3 cup sugar
1 to 2 tsp. brandy or vanilla
dash cinnamon
dash nutmeg

Heat oven to 425 degrees. Prepare pie crust according to package directions for two-crust pie, using 10-in. tart pan with removable bottom or 9-in. pie pan. Place prepared crust in bottom and up side of pan. Trim edges. Do not prick crust.

Partially bake crust at 425 degrees for 10 minutes. If crust puffs up, gently press back to bottom and sides pan with back of wooden spoon.

In large skillet over medium-low heat, combine filling ingredients. Saute about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; drain. Set aside.

In small bowl, blend custard ingredients. Spoon apples in pie crust-lined pan. Pour custard over apples.

Cut remaining crust into 1/2-in. wide strips. Using the eight longest strips, arrange in a V pattern around tart with points of V meeting in center. Place the remaining smaller strips in a V pattern within the larger strips. Trim and seal edges. With any remaining pieces of dough form a flower. Roll a small piece of dough tightly to form a center. Build on center to form petals by using larger pieces of dough attaching at base. Curl out outer edges of petals. Place flower in center of tart. Bake at 425 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes.

In medium saucepan, bring cream just to a boil. In small bowl, combine 2 egg yolks and 1/3 cup sugar. Blend a small amount of cream into yolks. Blend yolk mixture into cream and cook over low heat about 10 minutes or until mixture coats a spoon, stirring constantly. Do not boil. Remove from heat. Stir in brandy, cinnamon and nutmeg. Cool slightly. To serve, pour small amount of warm Creme Anglaise onto individual cake plates. Remove sides of pan; cut into wedges. Place piece of warm tart on top of sauce. 8 to 10 servings.

Glazed Fresh Apple Cookies

1 1/3 cups packed brown sugar
1/2 cup plus 1 Tbs. margarine or butter, softened (divided)
1 egg
2 cups all-purpose flour
1 tsp. baking soda
1 tsp. ground cinnamon
1/2 tsp. ground cloves
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1/4 tsp. plus dash salt (divided)
1/4 cup apple juice or apple cider
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup chopped, unpeeled apple (1 medium apple)
1 cup raisins
1 1/2 cups sifted confectioner's sugar
2 Tbs. milk
1/4 tsp. vanilla

In large bowl, beat brown sugar and 1/2 cup margarine with an electric mixer until well combined. Beat in the egg until fluffy. In a medium mixing bowl, combine the flour, baking soda, cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add dry ingredients to brown sugar mixture; beat well. Beat in the apple juice. Stir in the walnuts, unpeeled apple and raisins. Drop dough from a tablespoon onto a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a preheated, 375-degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes or until done.

Meanwhile, for glaze, in a small bowl, combine confectioner's sugar, milk, the remaining 1/2 cup margarine, vanilla and the remaining dash salt. Stir mixture until smooth. Spread on warm cookies.

Makes about 36 cookies.
